a basket by Reynolds pulled the Rockets to within 8 at the end of the first quarter 15-7.

A Rickles three pointer to open the second quarter, got the Rockets as close as they would get for the rest of the game at 15-10 as Central fought back every run by the Rockets. Central was up 31-24 at the half and 45-32 at the end of the third quarter and things went downhill from there. It was 51-35 when Coach Christy Noble pulled her starters and the subs actually made up a little ground, outscoring Central 7-2 for the final 53-42 and the Rockets 6th loss of the season against 10 wins.

Reynolds was the only Rocket in double figures with 11 points; Rickles got 9; Roberts and Denney, 5 each; Amber Falin was 4 for 5 from the charity stripe; Hammond, Ashley Mink and Angie Boreing scored 2 each and Jessica Cobb and Ashley Lawson got 1 each.

Jayvees Win Two

The Jayvees did better in the opening game, jumping out to a 10-7 first quarter lead and staying ahead throughout for the 41-33 win over Central. Sophomore Leslie Carpenter, seeing action for the first time in a couple of games because of an injured back, came off the bench to lead the scoring for her team with 11; Jessie Hayes got 9; Ashley Mink and Angie Boreing, 8 each and Laura Beth Bell scored 5.

The Jayvees also racked up a 36-24 win over Corbin last Saturday.

Hayes led the scoring with 9; Mink got 8; Johnna Abney 6; Boreing 4; Bell 3 and Brianna Bussell, Amanda Barnett and Allison Anderkin, 2 each.

Freshmen Beat Corbin

The freshmen Rockets opened the three game set against Corbin Saturday and got things started with their 55-15 rout of the freshmen Redhounds. Coach Dawn Quiggley cleared her bench and 11 Rockets scored.

Abney and Bussell led with 8 each. Hayes, Jessica Carpenter and Tara Rowe scored 6 each. Anderkin, Stephanie Price and Sheena Swimney got 4 each and Rachel Chickens and Katie Parsons were credited with 2 each.

money because of the current U.S. Supreme Court ruling on the separation of church and state. A bill in the state legislature in Frankfort that would allow local school councils to hold voter referendums on whether to post the Ten Commandments, has not come up for a vote before the Senate or House.

The KACO representative told the court that ACLU officials would not bring suit against the county unless someone in the county filed a complaint with the ACLU about the posting of the commandments.

In other business the court voted to raise Berryman's pay and the pay of Mary Jane French to $7.97 per hour.

The court also approved County

Clerk Norma Houk's annual budget of $2 million and her deputy clerk's salaries of a combined $125,000 a year.

The court also declared the old county garage, which will be auctioned on April 28, as surplus property because the state had appraised at $30,000 and unless the county made it surplus property they couldn't sell it for less than $30,000.

night. Larkey said that if he was required to do that would be, but that in the past 13 years of football camp, that had not been necessary.

He said that his coaching staff is also within hearing distance of each cabin and that because of the hard work and long hours players are usually so tired that they must sleep while in the cabins.

At camp, a player's day starts at 6:30 a.m. and ends at 11 p.m.

Larkey said that the four days at camp is worth more to his team than a month of practice at home.

He told the board that at this year's camp there was one incident in which an older player flipped a freshman with a towel and that the upper classman was disciplined over his action.

"There is no hazing or 'initiating' of freshman players and anything you may hear about stuff like that simply isn't true," Larkey said.

"Our players are taught discipline and respect and when one of them crosses the line they are dealt with in a professional manner because we, as coaches, respect our players too," Larkey said.

Larkey also discussed sports in general at the high school and said that about 200 students participate in the sports that are offered now.

He said that in order to remain in compliance with federal law, the high school may begin offering intramural soccer and volleyball as well as baseball, girls softball, girls and boys basketball, football and track.

Larkey also told the board that the coaches at the high school in all sports worked well together and supported each other.

Board Chairman Dr. G.W. Griffith told Larkey that he thought some students probably would not graduate, if it were not for their participation in sports. The main thing is that they get a degree so they can get a job, or go on to school. It is a must these days," Griffith said.

Superintendent Hammond pointed out several positive aspects of sports and the fact that a lot of times the school system, as a whole, doesn't do a good enough job of promoting the students and the hard work they must go through to participate in sports.

In other business, the board re-elected Dr. Griffith chairman and board member Terry Burton as vice-chairman.

one problem and he says that the matter will probably end up in court because of the action of the Rockcastle Fiscal Court.

When Gates began clearing the land and cleaning up the dumps on his property, he built a quarter mile of new road, on the Toddy Payne Road.

The Toddy Payne Road is a county road, but a large portion of road can only be crossed with a four wheel drive or ATV.

Gates asked the court to close the road because of its condition and because he did not want problems with people dumping garbage.

The road also splits his property and if people are allowed to ride ATVs and four wheel drives, Gates said it will make it a safety hazard for the blind people, who are at the retreat.

People will be riding horses and doing other things that would be dangerous if people are using the road," Gates said.

Gates said that he does appreciate the efforts of County Judge Buzz Carlolitis, but he doesn't understand the court's decision.

Last month the court voted to keep the road open, after a motion by Carlolitis.

There were a number of people at the meeting who opposed closing the road, although it truly is almost impassable.

"I didn't come here to fight, but until we walked the road with a doctor, you couldn't even travel it with a four wheel drive," Gates said.

Billy Wynn, another property owner in the area who has also worked with Gates on his project, said he doesn't understand the court's action either.

"If people want it left open to ride ATVs that is against the law on a county road. If they get off the road and ride on Mike's property that is trespassing," Wynn said.

The final decision on whether or not the road will remain open will probably come in Rockcastle Circuit Court.
