

Minds In the Middle

Congratulations to those 8th graders who auditioned and were recognized as part of the 2000 District 11 Middle School Honors Band: Jessie Blevins, Amy Elliott, Jessie Denny, Sarah Mullins, Amy Gilleland, Scott Cain, and Josh Ott. We received several new or returning students last week. We would like to welcome Brandon Isaac, Jordan Palmer, James Legger, Donna Ferch, Kera Mazurek, and Ashley VanWinkle to our student body.

Our Academic Team is preparing for the upcoming Governor's Cup Competition. The team has planned to practice each Monday and Tuesday until 4:30. It is important that each member attend practices.

The Y-Club members are already preparing for the 2000 Kentucky United Nations Assembly which will be held March 9-11. Our teams have been assigned the countries of Russia, Honduras, Egypt, Ireland, and Kenya.

Congratulations to our boys basketball teams. Last Thursday night all three teams came away with wins over Northern Pulaski. The 6th grade score was 50-2 with Weston Ridge leading the way with 12 points. The 7th graders won with a margin of 42-33. Blake Roberts led scoring with 11 points. Tim McIntosh led the 8th graders to a 43-41 win scoring 15 points. The teams will be competing at home again this Thursday night against Mecca Middle School. Next Tuesday, they will be at North Laurel.

Through our Gear-up program, we are looking for adults in the community who enjoy interacting with young people and would be interested in participating in our mentoring program. If you have an interest in being a mentor, please call Andy Biechler at 985-3553 or you may leave a message for Andy at RCMS: 256-5318. The mentoring program will be open to 6th and 7th grade students. Applications will be given out to students during the month of January.

Remember that next Monday, January 17, is Martin Luther King Day and school will not be in session.

Members of the RCHS Band auditioned and were selected for the 2000 Bluegrass All-Regional Band. The students spent last week end rehearsing long hours in preparation for a concert given on Saturday. They also had the opportunity to perform with students from 29 other counties from across the region as well as working under guest conductors Eugene C. Norton of Morehead State University and Dr. Wayne F. Dorothy of North Dakota State University. Pictured are from left: Cassie Smith, Ricky Barrett, Shana Noe and Tom Mills, Jr.

RIST provides scholarship money to 61 RCHS grads

The Rockcastle Incentive Scholarship Trust provided scholarships to 61 Rockcastle County High School Graduates in 1999. The students were awarded the money based on the number of points they accumulated throughout their school careers. Students can accumulate points for such things as perfect attendance, academic achievement, taking college entrance exams and community service. Parents can earn points for their children by attending activities such as parent teacher meetings and open house meetings. Once the student receives the points, they are eligible for the scholarship if they have been accepted into a college (two or four year) or a technical school.

The 1999 graduates received scholarships ranging from $13.68 to $133.98. The recipients are: Joanne Ambrose, Amy Blanton, Bethany Blanton, Lee Ann Booth, Steven Bowman, Kevin Bradley, Becky

Brewer, Suzanne Brown, Mary Beth Browning, Elizabeth Bullock, J.
