McKinney - Decker wed

Carol McKinney and Scott Decker were married October 1, 1999 at the Crossroads Assembly Church of God in Broadhead by Bro. Nathaniel Fugate.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a floor length white satin gown accented with lace and pearls. The chapel train fell from the waist with pearls and ruffles. Her veil was accented with pearls and lace. The bride's bouquet was a cascade of white roses made by Mrs. Janet Bishop. The groom meeting his bride at the altar was dressed in a black tuxedo.

Mike Howard sang "It's Your Love" as the mothers of the bride and groom lit the candles. The unity candle was lit by the bride and groom as Mrs. Julie Hines sang "You're Still the One." After the unity candle was lit the groom surprised his beautiful bride with a solo "Adam's Side." After the couple was pronounced man and wife, Tony Renner and Melissa Bishop sang "From This Moment On" and Tony sang "I Cross My Heart."

The groom's best man was his life long friend, Eric Childress of Conway. Groomsmen was Thomas McKinney, brother of the bride, Chris Young, friend of the groom and Christopher Lewis, son of the bride. The best man and groomsmen were dressed in black tuxedos also. Matron of Honor was Kimberly Sue Lovell, sister of the groom. Bridesmaids were Brandy Lewis, daughter of the bride, Sharon Smith, aunt of the bride from Waco. The matron of honor and bridesmaids were dressed in long black dresses with purple and white bouquets. Guest register was kept by Mrs. Amy Childress.

Christopher Lewis was ring bearer and Sarah McKinney was flower girl. A reception was held immediately after the ceremony. After a honeymoon trip to the South the couple are making their home in Mt. Vernon.

Mr. and Mrs. Decker are both employed at Bluegrass Plating in Richmond.
