In Loving Memory of Eugene & Liddle Reppert and other family members

I'm Free Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free I'm following the path God laid for me.

I took His hand then I heard him call, I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day, To laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way, I found that peace at close of day. If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Ah yes, these things I too will miss, Be not burdened with times of sorrow.

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I've savored much, Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and share with me, God wanted me now, HE SET ME FREE.

In Memory of Earl Mason who passed away Feb. 10, 1992 Father

You were someone very special, Father. In lots and lots more ways than one. And there will never be another father.

Like you beneath the sun, God made lots and lots of fathers, Some that are very, very understanding.

But He will never make another, That will ever measure up to you. I am still proud to hear people say, Those good things about you.

"What Is Written"

We continue our series of studies on God's plan of salvation. Last week we noted that redemption begins with hearing the gospel. The next step is that we must believe in God and his Son Jesus Christ. "But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him." Heb 11:6. Notice the writer says that it is impossible, (not "unlikely") to please him, if we fail to believe. In John 3:16 we read, "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." Yes, we must have faith in the Son of God. God has given us plenty of evidence to convince any honest soul who will look into the scriptures and consider it. "And many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book: But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name." John 20:30-31. Jesus warns that if we fail to believe we shall die in our sins. "I send therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins." John 8:24. Let us ask if we can help you in a study of God's word.
