Regarding my letter in your column of March 23, I wish to thank you for allowing space to ask some questions about a property dispute agreement that threatens the peace and tranquility of a once loving family.

There is one error that I should like to have corrected. My mother, Josie Harper, dower, was a joint owner with my father in only one 35 (thirty-five) acre tract, not 350 acres as stated in the letter printed. The other five tracts were in the name of C.C. Harper only.

It is important that this be clarified, as Mother's share of the estate became a vital issue in settling the dispute. Thank you.

Sincerely,
Florence C. McKinney
