

Happy Birthday David
Here's a fellow we all know
He's 53 but it doesn't show.
If you have a question about sports,
Just ask David, he won't come up short.
He's a Christian and he'll let you know Walking with God is the way to go.
Happy Birthday to David Brock From Your Friends at the Brothead Elderly Apts.

Sean Patrick Moberly

Shakespeare coming to Rockcastle County

On May 12, Rockcastle County students will get the chance to see William Shakespeare "Alive!" Kentucky Shakespeare Festival's touring educational outreach program, Shakespeare Alive!, will perform its

Boy Meets Girl Meets Shakespeare for students of Rockcastle County High School at 8:30 and 11:30 a.m.
Now in its tenth season, Shakespeare Alive! runs through May 15th, bringing interactive performance workshops to schools throughout Kentucky.

These workshops will introduce 200 students to Shakespeare's drama through performance. Students will enjoy scenes from three of the Bard's plays, with a focus on the theme "The course of true love never did run smooth." Within the interactive format of the program, students are allowed to ask questions and assert their opinions regarding the artistic work while exploring the program's theme. The Festival will conduct five hundred such workshops this season.

The 1999-2000 tour features Douglas and Carolan Harty, a husband-wife team of professional actors who are no strangers to arts education. Carolan made her debut with the Festival on last year's educational outreach tour and was featured in Kentucky Shakespeare Festival's 1999 summer season production of The Taming of the Shrew.
Doug joins the Festival for the first time with this tour, having recently moved from Montana where he spent the last two years building an arts education program and touring for Montana Repertory Theatre. Within each performance workshop, Doug and Carolan perform scenes from Twelfth Night, A Midsummer Night's Dream, Romeo and Juliet, and Antony and Cleopatra. The scenes have been selected and staged to reflect the relevant and contemporary nature of Shakespeare's works.

Kentucky Shakespeare Festival, located in Louisville, is year round non-profit theatre dedicated to providing quality classical theatre and educational touring programming throughout the region. Shakespeare Alive! is designed to address the KERA Core Content for the Arts & Humanities and National Standards for the Arts & Humanities, and since 1990 the tour has served over 224,000 students in all Kentucky counties.
The Festival has also toured into Indiana, Ohio, West Virginia and Tennessee.

Happy Birthday Dad & Mom
We love you,
Trina, Mark, Whitney & April

You're never too old to play on a slide.
When you were younger you used to just glide.
It was much easier when you were small,
but growing up, will come to us all.
So if you want to pretend that you are still young, Just be very careful and don't get hung.
Happy Late Birthday
Anna Helen Jean McFerron Doan
from your co-workers at CRCCC

Happy Birthday Chris and Brandon. Chris turned 11 on April 11th and Brandon turned 9 on April 19th. They are shown with their new baby brother, Drake.

We love you,
Mommy, Eddie
and Drake, Papaw Eddie and
Mamaw Sherry Decker, and Aunt Tina and
Uncle Rod Blanton.
