Dear Editor:

I have gave this letter a lot of thought. My grandma, Neal Cornett died. She died April 11. But she was really taken from me two years ago. My aunt said she was taking my grandma to Michigan* to live with her. She said she didn't want grandma to ever go to a home.

She didn't keep Ma Neal long, she put her in a home. My aunt would never let my dad or I know where grandma was. Because she knew we would go and get Ma Neal and bring her home to live with me. Ma Neal wasn't sick or crazy. She cooked for herself and cleaned. My mom died May 12th of last year. She had been sick for eight long years, my dad never put my mom in a home. We took care of her. As I said Ma Neal wasn't sick or crazy, she was old. She spent a week with me before my aunt took her away. It was nice waking up every day that week knowing Ma Neal was with me. I went to see her at Dowell & Martin the day before she was buried. I wish I had just remembered her as I had seen her last. She was happy full of life, smiling, she wasn't fat but she wasn't thin. But as I looked at her that day, as she lay there so small, it tore my heart out. The Bible says forgive and forget. I'm sorry God. I can never forgive my aunt and I'll never forget.

If you have a loved one please do everything and anything to keep them from going into a home.

Dear Editor:
I just got my Signal this morning and I look forward to getting it. But seems like the same old thing week after week. I was thinking how nice it would be to start a recipe club.

Say if each reader of the Signal would send in a recipe once in a while, for this Signal goes to several states, it would be so nice to get new recipes and interesting to see where they come from. I love to get new recipes and try them. While I'll soon be 90 years old, but still love to bake when I'm up to it.

So am sending you this recipe for its so good and easy.

To make:
Mix 1/2 c. sugar & tablespoon cinnamon set aside.

1 (18-25 oz.) yellow cake mix
with pudding.

4-large eggs
3/4 c. water
3/4 c. vegetable oil

1 tsp. vanilla.
Beat first five ingredients on with mixer for three minutes.

Pour 1/2 of batter evenly into 2 greased and floured loaf pans.

Sprinkle 1/2 of sugar mixture on

Pour rest of batter over this.
Sprinkle rest of sugar mixture on Sprinkle rest of sugar mixture on top.

Gently with a knife swirl batter

Bake 350 for 45 minutes or till fish comes out clean. It's so good!

I keep some in the freezer for when someone comes in, all I do is
