

In Loving Memories

A Belated Father's Day Memory
Dad Nathan Westfield
From his baby daughter, Lora Westfield Hamilton
 Daddy, you went to heaven many years ago.
 You were twin daughters just 16 months of age.
 Nine children were your goal.
 You weren't just 54.
 You were very quiet, but when you spoke it was as good as gold.
 All your family have gone to meet you now.
 My twin sister followed behind you in a short time.
 But you are happy now with no more memories and suffering.
 With those beautiful testimonies.
 You met the Master down by the river.
 You had been redeemed and washed by the blood.
 As you spoke that wonderful word you joined hands.
 And on your head was this beautiful crown.
 Dad, I feel like I knew you.
 Oh what a beautiful sight with all the family gathered around.
 But there's one missing.
 But the other twin will meet you soon.
 We will all meet by the River.

In Loving Memory of My Dad, James Lyod Stewart, who passed away Feb. 1st, 2000 (My Dad)
 Through the life times of Heartache and despair,
 the tender love of Dad was always there.
 No matter what you would do, even if it was wrong, he would truly stand by you.
 Never a mean word about anyone, a loving husband, father, grandfather, brother and friend.

He would do anything that you would ask of him, because he cared and loved all of his family and there to lend his hand.
 The Greatest Dad in the world is now waiting for all of us to come home.
 He loved to hunt and fish, these are all the things about Dad that I miss, but the memories is always with us. He was a wonderful Dad, although it was hard to let him go, I know that he is still with us, caring and loving like his always did.
 I Love and Miss You Dad,
 Your daughter,
 Debbie Higgins & family
