Dear Editor:
Yesterday (June 27, 2000) was my first day out since breaking my leg in April.
I stopped at the Livingston Post Office, a good person offered to help me out of my car, and then three more people in the parking to in Mt. Vermon offered help.

and a special person at the dollar store, next to the Save-A-Lot, abe took my purchases to my car. I have to walk slow and it was raining, I would have had to make several trips, and would have been soaked. I don't know your names, but thanks for caring.
