

Mamie McCullough will speak at school system's district day

The Annual District Day for the Rockcastle County School System will be on August 10, 2000, in the Rockcastle County High School Auditorium. Registration will begin at 8 a.m., and the program will start at 8:30 a.m.

Our guest speaker will be Mamie McCullough, a nationally known speaker, author and teacher.

After a successful business career, Mamie found one of her true loves is education. She has taught every level from eighth grade through college, served as principal of a large Georgia High School, and has written a course which promotes a healthy positive mental attitude, good relationships and goal setting for students as well as parents.

Her proven record of helping ing her own company in 1989, she has been the speaker of choice for hundreds of schools. She travels over 100,000 miles a year speaking to thousands of people. She has shared that platform with such notable personalities as William Glasser, William Bennett, Tom Landry, Zig Ziglar, Denis Waitley and Norman Vincent Peale.

Roundstone named Distinguished

Roundstone Elementary School was one of only nine schools recently honored by the Kentucky Department of Education as a State Title I Distinguished School.

"The Kentucky schools selected for state awards are outstanding examples of flexibility and school-based planning encouraged by Title I and Kentucky's educational system," said Diane Roberson, manager of the department's Title I Branch. "Roundstone Elementary has demonstrated that all students can be held in high standards," she said.

The Title I Distinguished Schools program identifies schools that ensure all children have access to effective instructional strategies and challenging academic content and demonstrate success in ensuring that all children make significant progress toward learning that content.

According to Roberson, eligibility was based on stringent criteria. Each school had to have an accountability status of Reward 2 for cycle 3 of KIRIS with a combined growth index for 1996-98 that exceeded its improvement goal and have a total academic index on CATS 1998-99 that met or exceeded the state total academic index.

David Pensol is principal at Roundstone. Members of the Site Base Council are parents; Susan Jordan and Tina Mullins. Teacher members are Michelle Atkins, Beverly Owens and Renee Burdick.
