In Loving Memories

In Loving Memory of Levis Mullins, Jr. who passed away August 7, 1999 What do you give a King When only the best will do Give him Gold or Silver? We didn't really have a clue We scarched all over for something That would Befit His Princely Name It had to be a gift of Honor Wealth would not be the same What could we give this King From us to our Lord above A gift of Truch, of Honor, Truly a gift of Love. So, we went straight to the master And asked him, and the answer We already knew We already knew He replied, only the best for

on Jesus My son Jesus
Give me your brother Lew.
We miss you, but one day we will be together again.
From Your Family.

In Loving Memory of Eddie Lewis, who passed away July 28, 1998 My Dad Daddy I wonder will I see you again In a place where we both will always

In a place where we both will always grin. Tomorrow will never come for you again

So I never grin.
I miss you more and more everyday
I hope I can see you again one day.
In a place where the sun will never fade away
Maybe that will be some day.

If I get to see your beautiful smile I know it was worth all the miles. I know it was worth all the miles.
To be with you again one day
Oh how I pray that will happen one sweet day. We will never have to worry about

We will never have to worry accounting flying by Cause our love will never die
In a land far far away.
Love Always,
Samantha Lewis (your baby)
& Ashley Lewis (your angel baby)

In Memory of my sister, Bertha Westerfield Collins who passed away years ago. Written by Lora Westerfield Hamilton Bertha, you have gone to your new home.

You won't have to worry any more.
I still miss you very bad.
I am so sad as I write this.
But you said you seen Jesus.

araday, August 10, 2000 Pg. A3
Before you pass away.
You won't have to roam around.
Since Jesus called your name.
You had so much trouble and under such a heavy load.

The Lord said it was time for you to go.

Heaven had gained such a sweet soul. I am happy that you are at rest.

You can lay your head on your Master's Breast.

And for ever you will all your family.

And rest, with all your family.

On that great Judgement Day.

We will all be loggether and have a wonderful time.

We will walk on our Heaven.

So good bye for now.

Your sis Lora Westerfield Hamilton

In Loving Memory of My Sister, Mollie F. Westerfield, Mollie F, Westerfield, who passed away Oct. 15,1998 Mollie, you were called home just before dawn one night. You were my pride and joy. You were so tired. The Lord called you home.<sup>197</sup> You met Jesus in the shadow of the cross.

His child couldn't be lost.

The beautiful sight, dressed up in that beautiful dress which was as white as snow.

It shine like Gold.

So many trials came he She never looked back She went straight ahead. She didn't complain.

She was a in a hurry to get on that train.
She was the child of the king.

Dark clouds may come and But that won't hurt her. She's done made it home. e was going to that big church, God's church.

She had the sweetest voice as she started to sing. She stood up straight as she took her
