In Membrance of All My Family
Seems like I can see all my family.
They have all gone home now.
They are so happy.
They don't have to go through that Great Tribulation Day.
The mountains become higher.
Their burdens were many.
The bells started to ring and the clock
started to chiming.
The Lord called their name.
As they all started to pray.
There stood their master.

He took them away.

As they looked there stood Jesus, that purple robe that he wore so shining.

His face so bright, my folks in that great big chürch.

Oh, those beautiful crowns up on their heads and

Oh, look at all their golden dresses.

Those little infants whom I haven't seen with their little harps.

They were so charming as Jesus held them in his arms.

The bride and groom came marching in.

Allamy family marched through the door.

They all will be coming for me soon
I know.

I will see all of them.

They all marched in to the wedding supper.

No more, suffering.

A note to all my folks.
