he's been called one of country's few believable blue-collar performers.

Sammy was born into a poor family in Abbeville, Louisiana. His father died when he was twelve and the youngster soon began working as a mule for a regional performer. He then moved to Oklahoma where he sang with local bands. One of his demo tapes eventually found its way to Mercury, Nashville, the label signed him to a recording contract in 1990 and the hits have been coming every since.

Renfro Valley concert goers will have the opportunity to attend two sensational Sammy Kershaw concerts on Saturday. Show times are 7:00 and 9:15 p.m. Tickets are $19.00 and $21.00 plus tax and handling. For reservations or information call 1-800-765-7464 or 606-256-2638.
