Fairview News

By Mrs. Hubert Chasteen

Hello to one and all.

This is another dark and gloomy Monday morning, September 11, 2000. But God has blessed us to sell another day, so let's enjoy and rejoice in it. Let's never forget how good God is to us. He gives us every good and perfect gift.

I also want to publicly thank our children, grandchildren and friends for being so good to Hubert and me. They are always here in time of need. I feel sorry for people who don't have friends. We are blessed with good friends and I thank God for them.

Worship services were well attended at Fairview over the weekend with Rev. Albert Griffin (Interim Pastor). Sunday School attendance was 131. Thank the good Lord.

A family reunion was held at the home of Mrs. Mary Cope on Saturday, September 9, attending were 73 people plus family members. All of her children were there, but Ernest who lives in Texas. Attendees were from several different places, including other states. They had a delicious meal and a very enjoyable time. The Cope family is loved and respected by all of us. And we too want to wish a happy birthday for Mrs. Cope, who turned 92 on September 12th. May God bless her with good health and happiness is our prayer.

A birthday party was held in honor of Mrs. Hallie Alexander on her 71st birthday, August 28th. Attending the party on August 26th were Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Alexander, Courtney and Cody of Mareburg; Mr. and Mrs. Rex Davidson, Jenia and Jeremy; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Isaacs and two small sons, all of Little Clear Creek Road; Jason Rawlings of Richmond and Chris Kirby of Mt. Vernon. We all love Hallie and wish her many more birthdays (happy ones).

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Powell of Dayton, Ohio were weekend guests of his sister, Mrs. Hallie Alexander. Other dinner guests Friday were Mr. and Mrs. Morton Jett and Dennis Hudson of Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Powell accompanied by Mrs. Alexander visited Mrs. Powell's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Green of Valley View.

Mrs. Alice Shupe of Dayton, Ohio recently spent a week here with her mother, Mrs. Mary Cope. All three daughters, Helen Spires, Christine Barnett and Alice Shupe spent one day last week with their mother.

Some of our most recent guests have been Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Chasteen, Mr. and Mrs. James Seals, Mr. and Mrs. Darrin Chasteen and two daughters and Allen Alexander. Let's all be good to one another. Pray for our lost people and those who are sick. God bless you.

Bullen reunion held

The Bullen 30th reunion was well attended between 75 to 100 in attendance, on September 10, at Berea Folk Center in Berea. The one's coming the farthest were Joseph C. Bullen (son of Joe and Catherine Bullen) from Japan.

Jolene Bullen from Bossier City, Louisiana; Melton Bullen and Betty Bishop from Franklin, Ohio; Vidlet Bullen Wright of Troy, Ohio; his daughter and husband, Ernest and Peggy Joe Grunewald from Waterlief, Michigan; Kim Conley and three children from Henderson; James and Gail Cope from Lexington. Gifts were given for oldest Melton Bullen, and youngest Chandler Simpson, 3 weeks old from Berea; Blake Wilson Turner, 6 months of Elvank. Best desserts were Cinnamon Pie - William K. Bullen and Peach Cobbler - Catherine Bullen.

The ones coming the farthest were Joseph C. Bullen of Japan and Jolene Bullen of Louisiana.

William K. Bullen presented Nancy J. Wilson with a plaque for keeping the family reunion going. Nancy also received a dozen roses and box candy. Thanks to all that helped.

Next year, 2001 reunion will be September 9th.
