Migrant Education Art/ Writing Competition

Recently, the State Migrant Education Program conducted an art and writing competition for students enrolled in the migrant program. Categories in visual art included all mediums. The categories for the writing competition included poetry, short and essay. The competition in micro department of Education was sponsored The Compensatory Programs Branch by the Department of Education.

tion.

On Monday, September 18, 2000, the winners from Rockeastle County were announced during a ceremony and reception at the Rockeastle County High School Auditorium. Writing at the 9th and 12th grade level in the Short Story Category was David Snyder winning second place. At the Middle School level, Jerrad

Allen won first place and third place in the Short Story Category. Also, at the Middle School level, Sara Snyder won second place in the Writing Eswon second place in the Writing Essay. In the Elementary Writing Catgory, Roundstone Elementary School received all three state awards.

Courney Sparks won first place,
Mark Valerio won second place and Justin Flemming won third place. In the class project category, Geraldand Irene Alexander won first place with their quilt project.
Local educators working with the students include: Vanessa Jones, Christa Rose, Tammy Miller, Karen
Powell, Norma Eversole, Nelson
Graves, Renee Burdett and Regina Burton.

Gerald and Irend Alexander display their quilt project for the Migrant Class Project competition.

Rockeastle County students placing in the Migrant Education Art/Writ-ing competition include, front row from left: Katie Shelton, Mark Valerio, Justin Flemming. Back row from left: David Snyder, Ashley Kimbrel. Not pictured were Sara Snyder and Jerrad Allen.

Bittersweet Festival 5K Run

Saturday, October 7; 2000 Mt. Vernon, KY

8.00 AM (Regarization begins at 700 AM on Main Street as the court 131.00 for per-registered participates on or before 100.00 cm 131.00 for per-registered participates on or before 100.00 cm Anadrás to the top there overall make and female vaniones Anadrás to the top there overall make and female vaniones Anadrás to the top there make and female vaniones Anadrás to the top there make and female vaniones Anadrás to the top there are an anadrás of the con-trol of the top the top top the top top the top top the top the top top the top top the Anadrás top the top the top the top top top the top the top top the top top the top top the top top the top

Entry Form for Bittersweet Festival - 5K Run T. Shirt Size · M

ce is a potentially hazardous activity. I should not enter and rui to abide by any decision of a race official relative to my ability to it unusing this event including, but not limited to, falls, contact with eat or hazardov, and condutions of the road. Having read this war-terping my entry. I, for mystell and sunson estable to act on a uniters, and the City of MI. Vermon from all clause or liabilities. I also modernows that the race retrive is non-refronable, unless

Parent/Guardian for child under 18 years Mail this form and entry fee to Mt. Vernon City Hall, P.O. Box 1465, Mt. Vernon, Kentucky 40456 1465. Attention Bittersweet Festival. For information call Mt. Vernon City Hall at 606-256-3437.

Lunsford participates in UK Robinson Scholars program

Elijah Lunsford, a freshman at Rockeastle County High School, re-cently participated in the University of Kentucky Robinson Scholar of Southeast Community College in Cumberland. The program focused on Appalachian Studies and included workshops in Appalachian history anduraditions, storytelling, traditional dance and music, arts and crafts and Appalachian literature and poetsyn the students also visited Appalachian programs of the Students of Scholarship in White Students and show on WYMT.

Elijah was selected as a recipient of the Robinson Scholarship in May of this year and will be awarded a full scholarship teathe University of Ken-ticky or one of its community col-leges if he maintains a high grade point-average, came the designated score on the ACT, participates in program activities, and graduates from an Eastern Kentucky high school.

Second Laboration includes in the schedarship includes full times. Incess, room and bearth, book and personal supprends for up to loar years of study at the University of Kentucky or any of the state's community colleges. Paula R. Whitaker is the regional program coordinate. Eligib is the son of Debra and Keith Bullock of Orlandoand Michael and Eileen Lunsford of Berea.

Dyehouse named National Finalist for FFA Award

The National FFA Organization announced that John William Dychouse of Brodhead has been selected as a national finalist for the National FFA Proficiency Award in the Home and/or Community Development - Entrepreneurship/Placement area, Dychouse is one of only opment - EntrepreneurshipPlace-ment area. DybneeurshipPlace-ment area. DybneeurshipPlace-this award at the national finals to be held this October during FFAs in unand convention in Louisville. The proficiency awards recognize outstanding student achievement in agribusiness gained through establishment of a new business, working for an existing otherwise gaining for an existing otherwise gaining hands-on career experience. The Home and/or Com-taining Development: Entrepreneur-shipPlacement Award is one of 45 perfectioney program areas FFA mem-bers can participate in to develop valuable expense.

levels.

Dychouse, a member of the Rockcastle County PFA Chapter, became eligible for the national award after winning the Kentucky state FFA competition earlier this year.

This award is sponsored by Carbart, Inc., as a special project of the National FFA Foundation. Increasing the Project of the National FFA Foundation. Increasing the Project of the National FFA Foundation. Increasing the Project of the Courf finalists will receive aplaque and $250. The national winner of the Home and/or Community Development. Further national convention of the Project of the Pr

FOR SALE Wheat Straw, Pump-

kins, Gourds, Indian Corn , Sunflower Seeds Roy G. Brown Highway 70

Greenhouse Located 1/4 mile on Chestnut Ridge Rd. Call 256-4135 Rt. 1, Box 298 Brodhead, Ky. LOOSE MULCH 758-8581

Randall Durham's

The Mt. Vernon Signal Thursday, September 28, 2000 Pg. At UK Band to perform

rine Arts Series wine it a Compa-tent of the 21st Century Community Learning Center Federal grant. The University of the The University of the Center of Mr. Rebard Clary, is comprised of the Interest wind and percussion perform-ers in the School of Mrsse. Perform-ers in the School of Mrsse. Perform-ing several connects each year of the finest works for concert winds and percussion, the Wind Ensemble is now being recognized nationally as-one of the finest university instru-mental ensembles of its kind, and as-a leader in the public performance of new missial compositions in the Blaegrans' region. Since 1994 the wind Ensemble has been invited to perform for three divisional and inwind Ensemble has been invited to perform for three divisional and na-tional conferences of the College Band Directors National Association, and twice for the Kentucky Music Educators Association. As the centerpiece of a comprehensive band program which has served the Com-

On Thursday, October 12 at 7:00 p.m., the University of Kentucky Concert Band, Wind Emsemble will perform in the auditorium of the Rockcastle Coung High School. The UK Band will be presented the Michael Coung High School. The UK Band will be presented the Michael Coung High School. The UK Band will be presented the Michael Coung High School. The UK Band will be presented the Michael Carry Community Learning Center and the Rockcastle Counged for the Arts. The UK performance will kick off the Jal School Coung Community Learning Center federal grant. The University of Kenceky in Lexington. His duties in behavior of the Michael Carry, is comprised to the Jan School Counged the Arts and percussion performers in the School of Misse. Performance services for concert work and percussion, the Wind Ensemble is now being recognized nationally as one of the finest university instrumental ensembles of its kind, and as a leader in the public performance of the Misself Counged Coung

the UK Wind Ensemble will be per-forming for the Rockcastle commuforming for the Rockcastle commu-nty. Somany residents feel they have to travel outside the county for fine arts programming. Now, with the 21st Century Community Learning Cen-ter Fine Arts Series, they can enjoy quality programming here at hom

The University of Kentucky Wind Ensemble will perform Thursday, October 12, 2000 at 7 p.m. at the Rockcastle County High School audito-of the late Mr. John M. Brown's 422 Acre Farm, In Tracts Farm Machinery - Vehicles Tobacco Base - 9,536 lbs.

Sat., Sept. 30, 2000 at 10 a.m. U.S. 150 between Crab Orchard and Stanford

For additional information or a brochure, conta FORD BROTHERS, INC.

AUCTIONEERS-REALTORS

Send your Morris Homer or UPC sym bols from these ne lood products to the address above Heinz will turn sym bols into cash to help build a safe place for needly

