Funny, Isn't It?

Funny, how ten dollars looks so big when we take it to church and so small when we take it to the store. Funny how an hour serving God looks and how small it seems when spent playing golf, fishing or playing bridge. Funny how laborious it is to read a chapter in the Bible and how easy it is to read a hundred pages in a best selling novel. Funny how we believe what a person or newspapers say, but question what the Bible says. Funny, but we can't think of anything to say when we pray, but don't have any difficulty thinking of things to talk about with a friend. Funny how we need two or three weeks to fit a church event into our schedule, but adjust it at the last minute for a social event.

Funny, isn't it.

Prescription For A Laugh

JUST A LINE TO SAY I'M LIVING
That I'm not among the dead
Though I'm getting more forgetful,
And more mixed up in my head.
For, sometimes I can't remember
When I stand at the foot of stairs
If I must go up for something,
Or I've just come down from there.
And before the fridge, so often
My poor mind is filled with doubt,
Have I just put food away, or
Have I come to take it out?
And there are times when it is dark out
With my night cap on my head,
I don't know if I'm relating
Or just getting out of bed.
So, if it's my turn to write to you
There's no need in getting here,
I may think that I have written
And don't want to be a bore.
So, remember, I do love you
And I wish that you were here,
But now it's nearly mail time
So, I must say "Goodbye, my dear."
There I stood beside the mailbox
With a face as very red
Instead of mailing you my letter
I had opened it instead.
