Berea College

Berea College is a well-established undergraduate institution distinguished by its student labor program, history of interracial education, service to the Appalachian region, continuous, integrated learning environment, and emphasis on perspectives and values deeply informed by the Christian faith. The campus is located 40 miles south of Lexington, Kentucky in the town of Berea (pop. 10,000).

As a continuous learning environment built upon Berea's Great Commitments and Common Learning Goals, Berea College expects all workers to be active learners, workers, and servers, and seeks to be placed where the Christian values of human compassion, dignity and equality are expressed and lived.

Preschool Teacher

Child Development Laboratories

The Preschool Teacher is responsible for planning, teaching, supervising, and managing classroom activities for four-year-olds. This includes development of curriculum units, facilitation of parent meetings, supervision of student practicum experiences, supervision of student workers, and attendance at professional conferences. Undergraduate degree in Early Childhood Education or Child Development required; related work experience with preschool children preferred. Additional certification includes annual professional development, first aid/CPR certification, Kentucky "Request for Conviction" records check, and TB skin test. This is a full-time nine month position.

Workplace Experiences: Berea College expects each worker to: exhibit enthusiasm for learning, serve others, work as a team, value all people, act with integrity and caring, encourage plain and sustainable living, and celebrate work well done.

Applications are available at Rustic Cottage on the Berea College Campus or send resume and letter to Carolyn Howard, Berea College, CPO 2189 (B.C.), Berea, KY 40404. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. For information on current vacancies, please call the Job Line. (859) 985-3053.

In keeping with the College's inclusive Christian tradition and its emphasis on the dignity and worth of all people, Berea embraces and values diversity through encouragement of applications from women and members of minority groups. Employment decisions are based on training, education and experience related to the requirements of the job. All applicants for employment are considered without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age or disability. Berea provides reasonable accommodations to qualified individuals with disabilities.
