Saying Goodbye
By Jessie Byrd

As I walk down the long narrow road of the sad and lonely home to say my final goodbye,

As the smell of flowers come rushing in on me
I see a casket blue and gray.
With the words, said so true Written with in the casket saying

"Going Home"
With doves flying away
I see her laying there.
I used to be a happy lady
So full of life,

So joyful to see
With nothing to say
I see her cold pale face,
Purple lips,
And cold little limp body laying there.

And I love you of encouragement
That she told me everyday.
She would say, "Be happy and behave,
Live life to its fullest."

I look back now and I wish I'd listen to her.
For now I know what she said was true
The words of a loving grandmother,
Who could now never go back and say those words to her loved ones no more.

I touch her face,
Said I love you and goodbye,
And then walk away with tears and sorrow in my eyes.
I look around and wonder why,
So wonderful of a person had to wonder away.

I see her loved ones
Which she loved so dear, crying
And wishing that she would say,
I love you in return.
But she lies there with nothing to say.

I know in my heart
She is looking down and wishing that
We know now today how nothing,
But her sadness can really pass away.
Thinking of her as living in the hearts
And lives she touched.

And held in her loving hand
For nothing loved is ever lost
Only her hurts and pains of suffering,
Can ever pass away.
Because we all know
She was loved by so many
And loved so much

She'll always be in our hearts.
So now I say my formal Goodbye to my Mimie

Which is loved so much.
I love you and will always miss you.
My darling Mimie

Anger and hurt is all that we feel Wondering if our hearts will be able to heal.

A decision you made in a split second time Changing our worlds and confusing our minds.
If you were hurting, we would have never known

But now were left empty and feeling alone.
We were your friends, to us you could have come,
Instead you held it in and turned to a gun.

Your pain has been lifted, no more tears shall you cry—While were left on earth still wondering why?

We still love and miss you, Tammy

All Your Friends

In Loving Memory
Our mom and dad worked so hard and saved so long for what we grew up with and at any time would have sacrificed their chance to rest. Our mom and dad saw their children have the things that they did without and gave us so much unselfishly. Their love was so grand. Our mom and dad thought and planned and struggled to get by as good as they could. To set a good example for all of us. And to be good respected parents.

Our mom and dad asked no honors, no rewards for all that they had done. Except to raise their family the very best they could. Though we cannot evaluate. Our mom and dad love in their work to us they always will be our mom and dad. One of the greatest present who has ever lived on this earth.

We love you, miss you so greatly, Mom and Dad, yet you are in our hearts and minds everyday. See you in Heaven.

Our Blessing,
The McLemore Children

"What Is Written"

In Acts 19:8-9 we read, "And he went into the synagogue and spoke boldly for the space of three months, disputing and prevailing the things concerning the kingdom of God. But when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake evil of that way before the multitude, he departed from thence, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tyranus." Notice what Paul and the disciples were involved in, both among the Jews and the Gentiles, they were disputing on religious questions. A lot of people have the notion that it is wrong to "argue religion." Now if you mean to argue in a hateful, arrogant, snobbish, argumentative disposition. I would say yes such is wrong. But to reason about the scriptures, dispute with another that you disagree with, argue in a good way about the truth of Jesus, to earnestly contend for the faith, there is nothing wrong in this. Does any wish to say that Paul and the brethren were guilty of sin, in what they did for 2 years and 3 months? Truth has nothing to fear from an open investigation! This word disputing means "to speak diversely" as Young's Concordance defines it. This is how the cause of Christ has gained ground through the centuries, is through the teaching and preaching of the word, that will invariable "butt heads" with the adherents of error. Yes, disputing is a part of the nature of gospel system of things (cf. Matt 10:34-36), so let every disciple learn to speak the truth in love!

Fairview News

By Mrs. Hubert Chastien

This Monday morning is another beautiful day, cool but sunny. We are having wonderful autumn weather. But regardless of what kind of weather we have, we should be thankful for each day that God gives us.

Rev. Albert Griffin filled his appointment at the Fairview Baptist Church over the weekend with good attendance. Sunday School attendance was 128. Thank the good Lord.

Instead of news today I would like to share this poem with you.

"How to kill your church."
Don't come. If you do come, come late.

When you come, come with a grouse.

At every service ask yourself, "What do I get out of this?"

Never accept advice.

It is better to stay outside and criticize.

Visit other churches about half of the time to show your Pastor that you are not tied to him.

There is nothing like independence.

Let the Pastor earn his money; let him do all the work. Sit pretty well back and never sing. If you have to sing, sing out of tune and behind everybody else.

Never pay in advance, especially for religion. Wait until you get your money's worth and then wait a bit longer.

Never encourage the preacher, if you like a sermon, keep mum about it.

Many a preacher has been revived by Battery.

Don't let his blood be on your head.

It is good to tell your Pastor's failings to any strangers that may happen in; they might be a long time finding them out.

Of course you can't be expected to get new members for the church with such a Pastor as he is.

If there happens to be a few zealous workers in the church, make a tremendous protest against the church being run by a clique.

If your church unfortunately happens to be harmonious, call it apathy or indifference or lack of zeal, or anything under the sun except what it is.

Let's always be kind and good to others. God bless each of you is my prayer.
