

Sixth grade wins conference

The RCMS 6th grade girls won the southeastern conference by defeating Meeco 33-17.

The 6th graders were undefeated this season.

Meeco game Leading Rebounder: Meredith Robinson, 4; Ashley Stewart, 4. Assists: Jill Owens, 10 and Holly Barnett, 1. Steals: Ainsley Bussell, 5 and Jill Owens, 5. Points: A. Bussell, 4; J. Owens, 5; A. Dollins, 2; A. Stewart, 3; K. Stewart, 2; A. Stewart, 2; K. Stewart, 2; A.

Reynolds, 4; V. Clontz, 4; H. Barnett, 4; K. Whitaker, 6 and M. Cain, 2.

Championship game against South Laurel, 38-19. Leading Rebounder: Ashley Stewart, 10 and Ainsley Bussell, 6. Assists: Ainsley Bussell, 4. Steals: Jill Owens, 6 and Ashley Stewart, 11; J. Owens, 6; A. Dollins, 2; A. Stewart, 3; K. Stewart, 2 and H. Barnett, 10.

Members of the Rockcastle

County Middle School sixth grade girls' team are Miranda Abney, Jill Owens, Ainsley Bussell, Ashley Dollins, Morgan Kincer, Anna Reynolds, Kayla Whitaker, Victoria Clontz, Leanne Holden, Holly Barnett, Kayla Stuart, Leanna Mink, Ashley Stewart, Meredith Robinson, Morgan Cain and Bethany Taylor. Coaches are Chris Hendrickson and Darla Reams.

Eighth graders honored

The Rockcastle County Middle School honored their eighth grade basketball players and their parents during their last home game of the regular season. Pictured above, from left are: Ashley Bell with her parents, Larry and Alecia Bell and Hollyann Colson and her mother, Gayle Thacker. The girls will face South Laurel Thursday night at 6 p.m. for the conference championship at South Laurel.

From left: Katie Parsons and her parents, Lynn and Carla Parsons and Allie Mink with her parents, Keith and Paula Mink.

From left: Heather Hammond with her parents, Bro. Eddie and Roxanne Hammond and Tara Rowe and her parents, Derrell and Sheila Rowe.

From left: Johnna Abney and her parents, Johnny and Penny Abney and Gina McClure with her parents, Regina Morgan and Mark McClure.

Seventh grade takes second

The Rockcastle County Middle School girls' seventh grade team finished second in the conference tournament held last week at South Laurel. They are shown above, front row, from left: Neisha Taylor, Jessica Robinson, Megan Griffin, Crystal Farthing, Trevis Robinson, Rachel Killen and Ashley Bullock. Back row, from left: coach Melissa Singleton, Jessie Asher, Ashley Lunsford, Heather Hopkins, Megan Anderkin, Elizabeth Scarborough, Natasha Howard, Lara Cash and Holly Kidwell. The eighth grade girls play in the championship game Thursday night at 6 p.m.

Rockcastle County Middle School 6th grade girls' basketball team captured the 6th grade conference championship last Saturday. Members of the team are Ashley Stewart, Jill Owens, Ainsley Bussell, Ashley Dollins, Morgan Kincer, Anna Reynolds, Kayla Whitaker, Kayla Stewart, Leanna Mink, Meredith Robinson, Morgan Cain, Victoria Clontz, Bethany Taylor, Holly Barnett, Leanna Holden, and Maranda Abney. The team is coached by Darla Reams and Chris Hendrickson.

From left: Ashley Mize with her parents, Danny and Ruby Mize and Sara Parsons with her sister, Tracy Parsons.

From left: Leigh Ann Caldwell and her parents, Gary and Doris Caldwell and Amanda Wright with her parents, Roy Wayne and Kathy Wright.