90th Birthday Celebration

Grandma Mae Taylor celebrated her 90th birthday July 25, 2000 at Good Shepherd Church with her children, grandchildren, great grandchildren, and one great great granddaughter and other relatives and friends.

Dear Grandma - When I think back, I have the fondest memories of visiting you and Grandpa in Kentucky. The desserts waiting for us when we arrived, the homemade candy, the croquet games and the trips to Roses in Somerset were some of the things I remember. Happy 90th Birthday, your Granddaughter Lisa Dollis.

A Veteran tribute

In the hills and hollows of Brush Creek (Orlando) in Rockcastle County, a young boy named Robert Lee Baker hunted and explored with his brothers and sister and his best friend and cousin, Arthur Baker. When Robert was 18-years-old he was called to serve his country in World War II. This was the first time Robert had ever traveled so far from home.

He served in nine campaigns while in Europe, Africa and the Middle East. Robert was a Squad Leading Sergeant in the Third Infantry Division and the 17th Airborne Division during these campaigns. Robert won numerous medals in World War II; he won the Purple Heart for a mortar round that wounded him in his right leg. The shrapnel from this wound is still in Robert's leg today. Other medals Robert received were the Bronze Star, a Combat Rifleman badge, a West German Clasp, a Good Conduct Medal, a WWII Victory Medal and a European, African, Middle Eastern Campaign medal. Robert sent his Sergeant's pay home to his father, George W. Baker.

But eventually, Robert did return home to Brush Creek and married Bettie I. Smith. The young couple found it difficult to find work in the small community of Brush Creek and for a short time they moved north to find work. Soon, the beautiful hills of Rockcastle County beckoned the couple home where Robert found work at the Bluegrass Army Depot in Richmond where he retired from several years ago. Robert's heart has always been with his home and family. He has always loved to farm his rolling hills and to raise cattle and hogs. Even though Robert and Bettie had a hard time making ends meet on their small farm in Brush Creek, they raised six children: Wilbur Lee Weaver, Rosalind Baker Philbeck, Michael Lee Baker, Teresa Baker Philbeck, Pamela Baker Cox, Anthony R. Baker and Mark E. Baker.

This tribute was not only written for Robert Lee Baker and the sacrifices he made. It is written for all Veterans and their families that gave so much for our great nation. Thank you all, and thank you Robert from your family. We all love you.

Robert Baker
