In Memory of Thomas

November 22, 1986

When I am gone, release me, let me go.
I have so many things to see and do,
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears.
Be thankful for our beautiful years.

I gave to you my love, you can only guess,
How much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown,
But now it's time I traveled on alone.

So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a time that we must part,
So bless the memories within your

I won't be far away, for life goes on.
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me I'll be near,
And if you listen with your heart,
All my love around you soft and clear.

And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and say,
"Welcome Home."

Card of Thanks

Harold Cooper

The family of Harold Cooper would like to thank everyone who sent flowers, food, money, thoughts, prayers, and love. Without these people being there for us, things would have been much harder.

Thank you—Chad and Larry Burdette for the special and thoughtful words you had to say of Harold, our father, husband, and forever friend.

Northside Baptist Church presented a warming and very beautiful funeral. A very special thanks to my sister Virginia and all the girls at Jeans and my daddy; I love you all.

Special thanks to all,
The Cooper Family

"What Is Written"

Today we want to look at the question, Can a saved man fall from grace? Some answer no, but I am compelled by scripture to say YES.

Consider what Paul said in Galatians 5:4, "Christ is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace." What did he say? "Ye are fallen from grace." Who had fallen from grace? Ye, the Galatian brethren, chap 1:2, "unto the churches of Galatia." What had happened to the Galatian brethren? They had fallen from grace. Somebody says, you can't fall from grace. Men do sometimes say this, but an inspired apostle says that some had fallen from grace. Whom shall we believe, Paul or some man? Notice Heb 12:15, "Looking diligently lest any man fall of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled." Notice the writer says we can fall or as the marginal says, "fall from" the grace of God. Yes, it is plain to see that the scriptures shows that it is possible for the people of God to fall from grace. Who am I, that I can withstand God?

In Loving Memory of My Dad

James Loyd Stewart

Who Passed Away on Feb. 1, 2000
Dad on the day that you passed away, a part of me died with you. It was hard for me to find you that morning. It was like a dream, but it wasn't, you were so peaceful - not a wrinkle in sight. You looked young, as I held your hand, I knew then that you had walked toward the light. Now the holidays are coming and it's hard for me to bare, a sad and lonely Thanksgiving and Christmas that we won't get to share. Every day is hard for me to get through, my pain is unreal. I miss you so much Dad, so much that no words could ever describe how my heart broke on the day that you died.

We love and miss you Daddy
Your daughter, Debbie Higgins and family
