the Lodge: LIVINGSTON NEWS Due to the North bound passen-ger train being five hours late yester-day, our Livingston letter arrived too late for publication. In Loving Memory

In Loving Memory of Julia Pearl Bullock, on her Ist Birthday in Heaven Safely Honie I am home in Heaven, dear ones; Oh, so happy and so bright! There is perfect joy and beauty in this evertassing light. All the pain and grief is over, Every resultess toosing passed; Every resultess toosing passed; Fevery restless tossing paners a over, Every restless tossing passed; I am now at peace forever, Safely home in Heaven at last. Did you wonder I so calmily Trod the valley of the shade? Oh! But Jesus' love illumined Every dark and fearful glade. And He came Himself to meet me

In that way so hard to treat.

And with Jeque' arm to lean on,
Could! have one doubt or dread?
Then you must not grive as sorely.
For I-love you dearly still:
Try to look beyond earth's shadowe
Pray to trust our Father's will.
There is work still waiting for you,
So you must not silly stand;
Do it now while life remainersh-So you must not idly su Do it now, while life re You shall rest in Jesus' When that work is all o onen that work is all complete He will gently call you Home; Oh, the rapture of that meeting Oh, the Oh, the joy to see you come! Psalm 116
