"What Saith the Scriptures"

We continue our study of the 5 points of Calvinism, by looking at the the acronym TULIP, which stands for "unconditional election." The doctrine syst that God's choice of certain fluidudals unto salvation before the foundation of the world rests solely in His own sovereign will so God makes the choice who will be saved and who will be lost, YOL ave NO choice in the guatter.

So God makes the choice who win or saves and mino a con-have NO choice in the quatter.

But inen do have the power to choose, as we see from the scriptures.

But inen do have the power to choose, as we see from the scriptures.

But inen do have the power to choose, as we see from the scriptures when the scripture in successive the scripture in successive that the scripture in successive the scripture in successive the scripture in successive the scripture in scripture, whether the goads which your fathers served that were on the other side of the flood, or the global of the dimension, in whose lond ye dwell-but as for me, and my house, we will serve the 1000. I would gather from the tenor of these words that me can make a choice to serve God or something else. Consider Rev. 22.17. Aint the Spirit and the brinds come. And whosevery will, let him take the water of the processing. Come. And the thim that better hay. Come. And let him that waters come. And whosevery will, let him take the water of the processing of God did choose was the plain to redeem manking you and I will choose to accept or reject that plan. What do you choose, truth or error? Life or death? God or Satan? God made you with the power to choose.
