In Loving Memories

In Memory of Joyce Lee Everett

The day God called you home God knew that you were suffering. That the hills were hard to climb. So he gently closed your eyes. And whispered peace be thine. In tears we watched you suffer. We watched you fade away. Our hearts were nearly broken. You fought so hard to stay. But when we saw you sleeping. So peacefully free of pain. We could not wish you back To suffer that again. It broke our hearts to lose you. But you did not go alone. A part of us went with you. The day God called you home. Husband, Rick Everett & the Everett family

In Memory of our mother, Christene Hunt Nicely

You were a strong lady with kind eyes. Who prayed for many people and given love, sacrificing so much for all of us. A lot of strength comes from knowledge, respect you poured into our lives. You built a bridge of faith between your life and ours. You taught us to face the real world strong, but gentle.

Your service to life was a great example and we were proud you were our mother.

Even though it has been years since you left us to be with God. We will never stop missing you and the void in our life, our only hope is to live, and keep strong, until we meet again in Heaven.

*Her children in loving memory,
Wanda Taylor, Jean Gask, Jack Nicely, Katie Thomas and Brenda Taylor*
