Dear Editor,

I have read a lot about the Briarfield Cemetery lately! I have a lot of family and friends there. Although I under-stand the feelings of the people who have put up markers, I have to disagree with them about it, because I feel you should not take them somtending that doesn't belong to you no feel you should not tak them some-thing that doesn't belong to you no matter how much you want it. I wan aught not to beke anything that wan't mine from my assents who are burious at this centerely, how. The people who are buriously how the people who are the people who are

I read an article pu in a Pulaski County

I am outraged, as well as man others are, that such as this can continue to happen in these United State of America. We are a Bible believing of America. We are a Bible believing nation. We believe in the Ten Commandments and thou shalt not kill.

We need to protect (God's precious gifus (little children) by becoming involved, in addys "I don't want to get involved society."

I have written a poem that would depict the thoughts of a little boy whem would not have survived the about the command to the protection of the command to suffer. The little boy to the open its anotal true to life to the open its a not at true to life.

dren are made to suffer. The fittle boy in the poom is a not a true to life person, but portrays one. I would appreciate your paper publishing this poem. I believe we need to make the general public wave of what is happening in our communities. I urge your readers, to pray daily for the little children in this nation, who are abused and neglected, to report any and all casts of suspected child neglect or abuse to the proper authorities. If could be a manter of life and death.

"What Saith the Scriptures"

The doctrine states the Holy Spirit extends to the elect a special inward all that inevitably brings them to salvation. The external call can be and soften rejected, whereas the internal call cannot be rejected; it always

The answer to this doctrine is that this is simply "make believe." They have pawned this "internal-external" distinction as if it was taught in the Bible But they DO NOT have any verses to back this aspection up. If some Calvinist friend has a Bible verse(s), drop me a note about it.

Consider these verses. That ye would will worth yell could who ball the consider these verses. That ye would will worth yell could who ball called you muo his kingdom and glory. I These 2.12. "Whereauth of your google, to be obtaining of the glory of our Lord desir hriss." 2These 2.14 The scriptures simply point out that God calls us by the gospel. Have you, chosen to accept this calling of God?
