Local DAR meets

The Rockcastle Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution met on Tuesday, at 7:00 p.m. March 13th, at the home of Mrs. Ed Hunt and Mary Alice Hunt. Regent Virginia Darr led the nine members who were present in the opening ritual. Laura Durham acted as chaplain. Mary Alice Hunt presented the National Defense Report. Mrs. Darr announced that State Conference was March 15-17 in Lexington. Several of the members plan to attend. A nominating committee was also approved for selection of new officers for the coming year. The committee will consist of Mrs. Jean Towery, chairperson; Mrs. Molly Belcher and Mary Alice Hunt.

The program for the evening was "Keepsakes." Several members shared items of interest that had belonged to family or friends.

Refreshments were provided by Mrs. Ed Hunt and Mary Alice Hunt.

My Mother's Portrait

My Mother's Portrait
Artist - paint my mother's portrait. Let the lines and wrinkles show. Let a silver halo crown her. For she's growing old you know. Let your brushes tell the story of her patients, tender care. Mingle love with joy and sorrow just as life has put them there.

Happy 1st Birthday
Cameron Logan Bullock
Love Uncle Doo-Doo & Aunt Kel

Can you picture on the canvas all the years of sacrifice. Making life so bright for others. Never counting out the price? Blend your colors, softy, artist. Face her toward the setting sun... Towards that calm and peaceful valley. For her task is almost done.

Can you paint the pathway bright, Toward the land of endless day. Where blue forget-me-nots are blooming. All along a sunlit way. Call the picture a simple mother. All the world will understand. Homes and hearts and heavens bright. Cause she holds the savior's hand. This poem was given to me for my 80th birthday by my daughter, who passed away two years ago this month. —Mac Taylor
