

28th Judicial Circuit Juvenile Drug Court attends training

The 28th Judicial Circuit Juvenile Drug Court and Team recently attended a training seminar in Albuquerque, New Mexico. The seminar was sponsored by the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention and the National Council of Juvenile Court Judges. Daily sessions included Critical Elements of a Juvenile Drug Court, The Mystery of Adolescent Development, Milestones and Goals, Substance Abuse, Community of Youth and Families and The Importance of Community and Capacity Building. The Honorable Debra Hawes Lambert, Family Court Judge of Rockcastle, Lincoln and Polk counties; the Honorable Janet Booth District Court Judge for Garrard, Lincoln and Boone counties; Dallas Smith, Drug Court Coordinator, for the 28th Judicial Circuit; Attorney Carl Hill, Lincoln County Attorney; Attorney Carolyn Clark, 28th Judicial Circuit Department of Public Advocacy; Layla Shaw, Family Court Administrator, Kent County; and Attorney Kristi Chalkley, Certified Psychologist, Associate with Adams Children's Group; Larry Warren, Polk County Schools and Lisa Shaw, Center of Drug and Alcohol Research University of Kentucky were in attendance at the seminar. The group will be attending two more seminars in the upcoming year to better develop the local Juvenile Drug Court program.

Ayers has book published

Local writer, songwriter, poet and now author, William Jerry Ayers, has always had a dream of writing and having a book published.

This dream has now come true with his book, "Weird Legends". Ayers hopes all readers will find it this Halloween 2000 and is now on sale.

He came about the stories for his book by listening and recording the legends that his friends and family told him. All of us have at one time or another heard our grandparents or parents talk about weird tales from their childhood, tales that were said to be true. Strange stories that you hear on a warm summer night out on the porch after a day's work is done. But, mostly told as a cold rainy night while family and friends got together around a nice warm fireplace, on a stormy night.

So as to not let tales such as these die and be forgotten, they are in his new book, "Weird Legends". Ayers hopes all readers will find it enjoyable reading them as much as he had enjoyed writing and collecting them. "Jokes to Tell a Friend" by William Jerry Ayers. Tell someone a joke today and spread a little happiness.

If things that are letting make you fat, what does shortening do? I know some surgeon jokes that will keep you in stitches. The reason a dog has so many friends is that it wags its tail, not his legs.

Money is the root of all evil, some people have been rooting for it all their lives.

A friend of mine got a book for his birthday called "Man, the Master of His Home," but his wife won't let him read it. It's often days, a naughty child was straightened out by being bent over. A third grade teacher is a person who knows how to make little things count.

"That's What Moms Can Do" by William Jerry Ayers. Moms can do so many wonderful things. Moms have been rooting for it all their lives.

Creates an adventure by just reading a book. Spitting to show us how Heaven really must look. Moms can head when a little heart "breaks".

Banish "paranoia" with cookies and cake.

Moms are collectors who always keep baby shoes. Snapshots, report cards and things other people lose.

Moms can teach in their own special kind of school.

Follow yellow brick roads and save your golden rule.

Surly moms are angels sent here from Heaven above.

To help us to soar on the wings of their love.

Some Things To Remember by William Jerry Ayers.

Today's fulfillments are yesterday's dreams. Some people make fools of others, while others make fools of themselves.

To you life may be money and full of sunshine. Others may never see the sun.

LOVE, make it caring and unselfish.

God helps those who help themselves. Poetry is a great value to everyone, it talks to your heart and helps you understand about love and laughter and sadness.

A human mind is like an umbrella, more useful when it's open. Those who complain about the way the old ball bounces are often the ones who dropped it.

Stewart

Lawell is accused of criminal conspiracy to commit murder, tampering with physical evidence, concealing, removing and obtaining evidence and conspiracy to assault.

The day after Patty Clark disappeared, Sally Hoskins walked to the home of Sammy Stewart, Davy's brother, where Lawell was staying. Hoskins had been shot, but told police she did not know what had happened to her because she had been hit in the head.

Police say that Lawell cleaned Hoskins up before Hoskins was taken to the Rockcastle Hospital.

Rockets
