

Fairview News

By Mrs. Hubert Chastain

Hello again to you all. Spring time has arrived, we had a few days of fog weather with temperatures in the 80's. But it has now turned cooler with temperatures in the 40's this Monday morning, April 16th.

Hope each of you had a happy Easter weekend. Due to illness I hadn't been able to attend church and Sunday School for the past two weeks, but thank the good Lord we were able to attend Easter Sunday and Sunday night.

Rev. Albert Griffin (our full time Pastor) filled his regular appointment at Fairview over the weekend with a wonderful congregation. Sunday morning, Sunday school attendance was 142. I hope everyone stopped long enough to thank God for all the great blessings we receive every day. Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Abbey and Tonya recently were Mr. and Mrs. Scott Abbey of Berea.

Around 45 persons attended the service at Fairview Sunday morning. Easter dinner guests of Mrs. Hallie Alexander were Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Alexander and family and Mr. and Mrs. Rex Davidson and family, also Lorene Napier and Jason Rawlings.

Spending a short weekend in Augusta, Georgia recently were Mrs. Nancy Williams and daughters, Judy Cummins and Doty Parsons. They visited Mrs. Williams sister, Dorothy Lambert and her friend, Mary Lou Reynolds.

Attending the funeral of Mr. Marion Jett of Jackson, were Mrs. Hallie Alexander, Mrs. Jewell Davidson and family, Mr. Gerald Peters and family and Mrs. Wanda Ingram.

Mrs. Jett is a sister of Hallie's and Mrs. Ingram, Hallie, Jewell and Wanda spent the night with her. We all extend our sympathy and prayers to all the Jett family and relatives.

Mrs. Mary Cope's children, William and son, Billy, Mrs. Jean Hayes, Helen Powell and Christine Barnett have all visited her recently. William and son were Easter dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Cope.

Sherry Lynn McCullough of Winchester spent Friday night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Ridgell. Sherry also visited her grandparents, Hubert and Anna Lee Chastain. (We love all our grandchildren like we do our children.)

Other recent guests of Mrs. Hallie Alexander have been her brother, Harold Powell and wife, Mrs. Powell and Dennis Hudson all of Dayton, Ohio. And also Lorain Ward of Fairborne, Ohio.

Some of our most recent guests have been Lloyd Jefferson and son, Buddy Gubbard and Oscar Alexander, and of course our children. Also Fred Mullins, Jr. we always enjoy company.

Please remember church and Sunday School. Invite others to worship services. Pray for one another and love and trust people good. God bless you all.

FREE DISPOSAL SERVICE

In an effort to help keep your cemeteries clean for Memorial Day, the county will provide free disposal service for old flowers from cemeteries through Friday, May 25th. If anyone would like to have old flowers from cemeteries disposed of properly, please call County Judge Buzz Carlolitis' office (256-2856 or 256-2310) with directions to the cemetery.

Keep in mind that:

- Discarded flowers must be placed in bags
- The county will pick up only discarded flowers that are placed on the outside of the cemetery
- The county will not enter into the cemetery to remove flowers

Cameron receives Special Projects Award

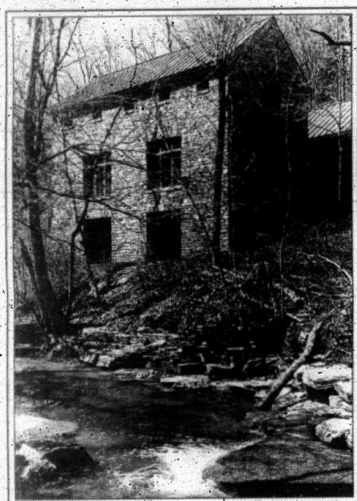

The Kentucky Masonry Institute (KMI) held its Twenty-First Annual Architectural Awards program for Excellence in Masonry Design on Friday, April 6, 2001 at the Marriott's Griffin Gate Resort in Lexington. Local Stone Mason, Bobby Cameron of Bobby Cameron Stone Masonry received a Special Projects Award for his stone work on a new residence located in Central Kentucky.

The home resembles the image of early Kentucky millhouse and stoned dwellings. In a time honored way, the owner and the mason collected time-stone from the owner's personal property. Stone was selected for the most weathered face to be laid face out. The exterior use of stone was carried into the entry on the walls, fireplaces and on the floors.

Cameron, a stone mason for approximately 16 years is recognized state-wide for his work and has previously received a KMI Award for a masonry project at Natural Bridge State Park.

Others contributing to both projects include James Hughes, Tom Sudthin, Jack McCormick and Randy Graves.
