City 'Council member Gene Cromer also asked why the city was paying soluve both city parks mowed when free labor was twallable from work release prisoners at the Rockeaste Detention Center.

The council took no action on at least two of the complaints, but did agree to look into the others. Mayor Karen King became obviously against with Mrs. Hunts comments and told her the council would discuss her subject no longer. She apprologated in Mrs. Gräves because she had not called back over her right-of-way question and with the saked water superinfendent Dennis McLutevio look into the use of councy prisoners to mow the parks. Council woman Clarice Kirby said that she did not think that the Mayor should have allowed Berca National to take five feet of city property without bringing it to the council first.
