"What Saith the Scriptures"

Jesus taught the apostles, (and us), "These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but he of good cheer: I have overcome the world." This is such a practical and helpful concept to keep in mind. This word tribulation is defined by Mr. Strong: "pressure (lit. or fig.) - afflicted, (-tion), anguish, burdened, persecution, tribulation, trouble." Indeed living on planet earth, among people of this world, there is indeed from time to time the various pressures, troubles, tribulations that come our way. I would hope it would cause us to long for that home in heaven, where we can escape the trials, sorrows, woes of this life. That God that we can find peace and tranquility of heart in our Lord Jesus Christ today. The storm may be blowing all around us with many tribulations, but we can have the joy and peace of mind that we are right with God, and have the promise of eternal life, (assuming we are trusting and obeying the Lord). To think that in heaven we will be free from all the woes and tribulations of this world. Friends, do you have this hope in Christ? Let us help you know these things.
