

Elizabeth Leann Wilson
I was there with your mother
Thru labor that ended in birth
A treasure straight from heaven
Blessed by having you on Earth.

So tiny and really a beauty
Our world never to be the same
Our hearts loved this cutie
Now it was time to find a name.

It had to be something special
We knew right from the start
Not another Jane or even Milly
It had to come from the heart.

Elizabeth after your grandmother
A name that was given to a queen
It made her so very happy
Her pride by all was easily seen.

Lee was after your gentle Dad
An honor usually given to a son
But your beautiful niece
Our hearts you'd surely won.

It seemed to need something more
This baby made for hugs and kissing
Thinking really hard and so fast
I knew it was part of me that was missing.

Your mom smiled and did agree
Ann was added to the very end
Now it was complete, this name
More than a sister, your mom was my friend.

Kris and Amanda Hazen of Richmond would like to announce the birth of their first child, a girl, Sadie Cosette. She was born August 8, 2001 at St. Joseph Hospital. She weighed 8 lbs. 9 ozs. and was 21 1/4 inches long. Her grandparents are Gary and Colleen Langford of Calloway and Dean and Alma Hazen of Centralia, Missouri. Her maternal great grandfather is Loyd Griffith of Mt. Vernon and her maternal great grandmother is Elva Langford of Calloway.

Elizabeth Leann is only a name—
A beautiful one to all I suppose
The name is the root and the stem
Honey, the you inside is the rose.

God blessed you with many things
Looks, personality, so gentle and kind
Your big heart filled with love is the key.

I thank him eternally that you're a nice of mine.

Here's wishing you a Happy Birthday on October 1st,
Today and through the years to come
I love you more than these words say.
Yes in you we're blessed, then some.

Love you always,
Your loving aunt,
Beverly Ann McHone

Happy 85th Birthday Dad

My oh my, how time flies!
Can you really be 85?

You're still so active and so strong!
The results of working all day long?
Your "Owens" pride is a hard day's labor,
Honesty and being a good neighbor.
Farming has always been your life.

Using tractors, machines, tools and your knife.
Tobacco, cattle and fields of hay.

Your worked hard every day!

Hauling fertilizer, peaches and coal,
Driving many hours on the road.

It seems all this was not enough

Your helped your daughter when her times were tough.

Over the years and in so many ways
All your help I can never repay!

So much that I now have,

Is because of my Mom and Dad!!

So I write this poem to honor you
And plan more trips for us to do!!

Now that the sun is going down,
And all the chores are done,

Jump in the truck and go to town
And then on to Wendy's for some fun!

Thanks for everything!

Your loving daughter,
Mava Jane Owens Stumper

Our little buddy - Rud who thinks he's still a stud
Tries to get his kicks
even though he's turning 46.
He likes to drink, he likes to shout,
he likes to dance, there is no doubt.
With his wife by his side through thick and thin,
his life is just now about to begin!
Happy Birthday Buddy-Rud
