In Loving Memory

In Memory of my sister, Verla Albright Casey, who died November 8, 2000

who died November 8, 2000
She wrote these poems after her stroke in 1997. He faith and her attitude was an inspiration to us-all. — Lucille Albright Ponder Life After a Stroke
By Verla Albright Casey
It's been a long time, since I felt the first pain, I called 911 and the ambulance came. After a long coma and extensive surgery, gery. The doctors informed me, you need

The doctors informed me, you need therapy.

There was very little pleasure, After they admitted me to Frazler. There was Gretchen, Jill, Ria, Eddie, Mary, Michelle, Anne, Sarah, Ellana and Dr. Daftary. I wanted to quit, I ried to resist, But, they wealight let me, not those THERAPISTS.

Little by little and step by step. I held my head up and looked to the left.

lett.
First in a wheelchair, then a walker, then a cane,
And Lo and Behold! I'm walking again!

Allo disagnin!
The next thing you know, I'll be driving again (1 hope).
You might want to stay off the roads.
So you see...there is Life After A
Stroke! I may never climb a mountain or ski

I may never climb a mountain or ski a downhill slope, But, there are other things I can do, I've come too far to give up hope. Beautiful Things By Verla Albright Casey I can still see my mother's hands, as she held a simple ball of yarn. And made beautiful scarves and with the same to the same

Works of art when finally done.
Beautiful things that live on and on.
Thank You God
By Verla Albright Casey
For each day that I awake,
For every step that I can take.

For every step that I can take.
For everyone who cares for me,
For all the beauty I can see.
There is so much to thank you for,
I think, I cannot ask for more.
Time
By Verla Albright Casey
Time to say I love you,
To friends and family.
While you are with them,
A better time may never be.
A kiss, a hug and "I LOVE YOU,"
Takes such little time.
But leaves a message forever, But leaves a message forever, To those you leave behind.
