"WHAT SAITH THE SCRIPTURES"

John declares in Rev.21:8, "But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death." Notice John said "all liars" shall end in the lake of fire. It's a crying shame that a man's word is no longer his bond. People make all kinds of promises only to dishonestly break them. Folks have the idea that telling "little white lies" are ok, as if the scriptures make some sort of distinction. Jesus said, "But let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay; for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil." An honest man does not need to "swear" to every statement. When he says yes, he means it, and when he says no, he means that. Folks who constantly say "I swear" or say "I'm not lying" indicates to me that, they do lie. Lying is contrary to the nature of God, for the bible declares that it is impossible for God to lie, Heb. 6:18. The solution to lying is to put it off, and begin speaking the truth to every man, Eph. 4:25. Truly the old adage is needed, "Honesty is the best policy." In fact, it's the only policy that is pleasing to God.
