

Local Sportsmen Club creates two scholarships for RCHS graduates

Don't always say that crime doesn't pay, because sometimes it does.

Last month the Rockcastle County Sportsmen Club voted to fund two scholarships for Rockcastle County High School graduates.

Sportsmen Club President

Perry Mink said the scholarships would be for a boy and girl and would be $500 annually.

Rockcastle County High School Guidance Counselor Dale Whitaker said that a committee would be formed to pick the recipients of the scholarships.

Applications for the scholarships can be picked up in Whitaker's office at the high school.

The money for the scholarships is coming from funds paid in district court for violations, such as spotfishing deer and taking game animals without a permit.

Rockcastle County Attorney Jeff Burdette had a large role in causing defendants to have to make payments to the club - which, of course, in return created the scholarships.

Kayla Reynolds a Brodhead Elementary first grader was all smiles Monday morning as she passed out candy in recognition of Dr. Seuss's 99th birthday. 30 guest readers participated in the event, including Rockcastle County Judge-Executive Buzz Carlottis and Rockcastle County School Superintendent Larry Hammond. The birthday celebration for Dr. Seuss was held in connection with Read Across America Week.
