County schools celebrate Read Across Rockcastle

On Monday, March 3rd, Rockeástle County Schools began á month long observance of Read-Across America. Read-Across America is a national program established to piromote literacy and to excite young people. Read 'Across America in Rockeastle County allows for many opportunities to integrate reading into various activities by the school district staff, students and community:

various activities by the school dis-rict staff, students and community. Brothead Elementary School sicked off Read Acrysis America sicked off Read Acrysis America, was an advantage of the juster traders in every classroom. Mt. Verion Elementary School beld a family arts and literacy night on Tuesday, March 4th. Roundstone Elementary School embraced literacy efforts with Allison Carter's Storybook Chautauqua presentation of Betsy Ross for third graders and a presen-tation of "Hi, Catl" at the preschool/ kindergarten level on Tuesday, March 4th.

March 4th.

AmeriCorp members worked together to maximize several scitivities at each of their host schools during the scheduled special events while inviting county officials, parents and grandparents to promote literacy.
The Rockcastle County Public Li-

The Rockcastle County Public Li-brary receiped a grant to promote the works of children's author Eran Jack Keats, Kathy McKibben, Children's and Young Adult Librarian and H. Allen Pensol, Basic Arts Coordinator for Rockcastle County Schools worked with Rockcastle County Middle School students to develop a script from "Hi, Cati", a Keats book ,for performances at the Library Storybook Hour on Tuesday, March 4th.

Mt. Vernon Elementary School students who participated in the summer literacy camp, Camp Learn-a-Lot, also attended the performance.

aner itteracy camp, Camp, Learns-Lot, also attended the performance. Another performance is scheduled for Thursday, March 27th at 1.00 p.m. at the Library. Mt. Vernon Eiementiary School students visited the Rockeastle Tele-communications' Center for a videoconference connection with Representative Damy Ford on Wednesday, March 5th. Represen-tative Ford took a few moments from legislative duties in Frankfort to read Dr. Seass "Oth Fe Piaces Vor III Go-via videoconference. Brochead Elementary School stu-dents were intertained by a similar virtual experience by connecting with Senator Ed Worley. Rockeastle rumas experience by connecting with Senator Ed Worley. Rockcastle County, High School student Traci Parsons, portrayed Sally Ann Thunder Ann Whitewind Crockett, a favorier Tall Talle character of American folk legends from the Rockcastle County High School Storybook Chautauqua Series.

The Chautauqua presentation was performed live for elementary students, visiting the telecommunications center and broadcast visit videoconference to remote sites. Additional Chautauqua presenters performing at local schools during March include Aaron Anderkin as Paul Revere and Harold Burdette as Johnny Appleseed.

cility is located in the renovated old courtroom at the Rockcastle County Courthouse. Community businesses, local hos-pital, fiscal court, development board and school system partnered to cre-ate a technology based learning cen-

Rockeastle County High Schoolstandents participating in the 21st Century Community Learning Centertury Community Learning Centertury Community Learning Centertury Community Learning Centertury Standard County High School students participating in the Keet tucky Musei-Hall of Fame and Mu-sented copies of their book."There's Music in Kentucky" to area schools and the public library on Monday, March 3rd while the Museum hosted a book signing Gala on Thurnday-evening March 6th. A component of the project was to experience Series learning by addressing a community need and utilizing skills learned in the leasteroom to produce a finished prod-learning the project was the project was the project with the project was the project and the project and

(Cont. to B3)

Book Publishing Project students Amanda Cummins, Casey Taylor and Brian Hess present copies of "There's Music In Kentucky" to Brodhead Elementary School principal Carolline Graves and students Shawn King

T-Bone Steaks

159

U.S.D.A. Inspected Western Grain-Fed Shoulder Roast

429

This Week's Hot Buy!!

Spaghetti Sauce

COCA Cola 299

10 Lb. Bag Russett Potatoes 149

Red Box Entrees

489

34.5-39 oz. Sel. Van Folger's COFFEE .

Bugles, Gardetto's

Minute Maid Orange Juice 299

Cinnamon or

Danish Rolls

79

Cheese Singles 2/53

Luck's Pinto Reans 2/89

1/2 Gallon Old Recipe

All Natural Juice Drink 2/5/

or Chex Mix 2/$3

Olde Fashioned Cones

Hungry Jack Biscuits 990

Check out our Coupon Extravaganza
Pick Your Own Brand Sale1 in this week's circular. Save up to $5.15 by applying 20'
to 50' off coupons on

Ice Cream 349

Tombstone 12" Pizzas <sup>3/$</sup>10

Cole's Texas Toast 3/$5

299

Chuck Patties 199

Tennessee Pride Sausage ______ 1 99

Gold Kist Young'n Tender Chicken Lea Otrs.

National Frozen Food Month

Green Giant Carrots ____ 28.8499 Red Star-Ruby Red. Del. Apples 16 bay Michigan 179 Grapefruit All Purpose Yellow Onions 259

1<sup>99</sup> Calif. Minnelola Tangerines ···· 1 79 California Navel Oranges . 149 Moonlight Sliced Mushrooms Vine Ripe Slicing Tomatoes . 99¢ togich Style In. 129 Seedless Cucumbers

14 at ton 1 59 Fresh Gourmet Croutons

Storybook Chautauqua presenter Traci Parsons portrays Sally Ann Thu der Ann Whirlwind Crockett.