

RCHS Band headed to Walt Disney World

Congratulations to members of the Rockcastle County High School Band on their performance at the KMEA Concert Band Festival last Tuesday, which was held at Eastern Kentucky University.

The band received an overall rating of Distinguished (1) on both their performance and their sightreading sessions.

"An overall rating of distinguished has been unprecedented in the program until now, these students worked very hard to receive this outstanding achievement," said Greg Daugherty, Band Director.

Band members are currently rehearsing for their Disney Magic Looking Good at 85!

From your wife Marie and all your family
Happy Birthday
We love you very much!

Music Days performance at Epco Center in Orlando FL, next Monday.

The band was selected through an audition process in which they submitted a recording of a previous performance, which was then reviewed by a committee from Walt Disney Entertainment Corp. The RCHS Colorguard will also be competing in the Orlando 'All-Star Indoor Guard Competition on Saturday, April 5th.

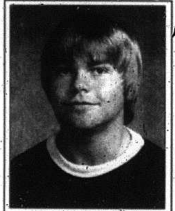

Good Luck to both the band and the guard as they represent our county!

Carmack on President's List
