

4-H Variety Show results

By John McQueary
Co. Ext. Agent for 4-H/Youth Dev.

Katy Mattingly, a sixth grade student at Rockcastle Co. Middle School, was the Master of Ceremonies at the 4-H Variety Show.

The Rockcastle County 4-H Council held the 2003 4-H Variety Show on Tuesday, March 18, at Mt. Vernon Elementary School.

The Council would like to express their thanks to Mr. Vernon Elementary for hosting the show, to Katy Mattingly for being the master of ceremonies, and to all of those who helped with this event. Also, a special thanks to the judges, Misty Bond and Kathy Price.

The winning Club Act and Specialty Act will compete in the Wilderness Trail Area 4-H Communications Day on Saturday, April 26, at North Laurel High School in London, beginning at 10:00 am. The results are as follows: In the Club Act division, first place went to Ms. Powell's 5th Grade Club from Brodhead Elementary. The act was entitled "The Tale of Rusty Red Bear". Second place act, "My Old Kentucky Home", was performed by Ms. Cameron's 5th Grade Club from Mt. Vernon Elementary.

In the Specialty Acts division, taking first place was Carri Hunt of Rockcastle Co. Middle School, performing "How Many Biscuits Can You Eat". Holly Brown, also of Rockcastle Co. Middle School, took second place with "She's Got You". Other blue ribbon-winners and the name of their presentation are as follows: From Brodhead Elementary School are: Brittany Adams, "Bluegrass"; "Please Forgive Me"; Anjelica

Craig, "Shimmering Rainbows"; Natalie Hauman, "Let's Rip"; and Andrea Gonzales, "Arizona". Brittany Vance from Roundstone Elementary School performed "Loving Arms". From Mt. Vernon Elementary School were Chelsea Whiteley, "Going Up To The Moon"; Bethany Clontz, Tiffany Mason Candace Kidwell and Casey Shurgill performed "Let There Be Peace on Earth"; Rebecca Ayers, "Footloose"; and Ellie Bryant, "There's Your Trouble".

From Rockcastle Co. Middle School were Breana Bryant, "Am I No Mountain High Enough"; Brook Martinez, Lindsey Reynolds and Samantha Smith, "On My Knees"; and Cody Kirby, "I'll Be". Congratulations to all youth who participated in making this a successful event.

Educational programs of the Cooperative Extension Service serve all people regardless of race, color, age, sex, religion, disability or national origin.

Second place club act in the 4-H Variety Show was Ms. Kay Cameron's 5th grade club from Mt. Vernon Elementary School. Title of the act was "My Old Kentucky Home".

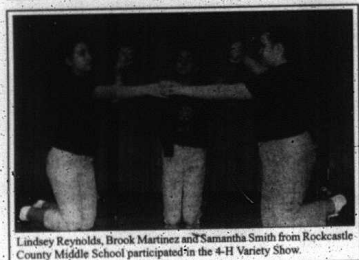

Specialty Act participants of the 4-H Variety Show were, front row from left: Brittany Vance, Brittany Adams, Rebecca Ayers, Andrea Gonzales and Kyle Riddle. Second row from left: Casey Shurgill, Tiffany Mason, Ellie Bryant, Bethany Clontz, Anjelica Craig and Natalie Hauman. Back row from left: Candace Kidwell, Lindsey Reynolds, Samantha Smith, Brook Martinez, Cody Kirby, Carri Hunt, Holly Brown, Chelsea Whiteley and Breana Bryant.

First place in the 4-H Variety Show was Ms. Powell's 5th grade club from Brodhead Elementary School. They performed "The Tale of Rusty Red Bear".

Jr. Specialty Act winners at the 4-H Variety Show were Carri Hunt, left, first place, performing "How Many Biscuits Can You Eat". Second place was Holly Brown performing "She's Got You".

Lindsey Reynolds, Brook Martinez and Samantha Smith from Rockcastle County Middle School participated in the 4-H Variety Show.

Central Body Service
275 Richmond Street - Mt. Vernon
Precision
Collision - Repair
Quality Work Since 1966
Free Estimates - All Work Guaranteed
606-256-4210

A Spirit of Innovation
A Legacy of Care

Catholic Health Initiatives

Catholic Health Initiatives includes these Kentucky hospitals:

- Berea Hospital, Berea
- Caritas Health Services, Louisville
- Flaet Memorial Hospital, Bardstown
- Marymount Medical Center, London
- Our Lady of the Way Hospital, Martin
- Saint Joseph HealthCare, Lexington
- Saint Joseph Hospital
- Saint Joseph East
- Continuing Care Hospital at Saint Joseph East

Saint Joseph HealthCare welcomes Berea Hospital to the CHI Family.

Together, we will continue to raise the standard of care for patients in Central and Eastern Kentucky.

Mission

The mission of Catholic Health Initiatives is to nurture the healing ministry of the Church by bringing it new life, energy, and viability in the 21st century. Fidelity to the Gospel urges us to emphasize human dignity and social justice as we move toward the creation of healthier communities.

U.S. News Best Hospitals

CATHOLIC HEALTH INITIATIVES

Saint Joseph HealthCare

Since 1877. The Science of Medicine. The Heart of Compassion.