

Phillips receives scholarship

Cumberland College honored several outstanding students Monday, April 28, during the Honors Day convocation service. Honors Day, held actually in the O. Wayne Rollins Center on the Cumberland College campus, recognizes students who have excelled academically through out the school year.

Gretchen Phillips, daughter of Phillip and Gilda Phelps of Mt. Vernon, was the recipient of the George I. Alden Endowed Half Scholarship. Only six students are chosen, based on their grade-point average, leadership abilities and academic achievements. Cumberland College president Dr. James Taylor presented the award.

In addition to the Alden Scholarship, Phelps has also been awarded the High Honor and inducted into the Alpha Lambda Delta Freshman honor Society. She is a mathematics and physics double major.

Cumberland College, located in Williamsburg, is a private liberal arts college in its 114th year of operation. Cumberland offers four undergraduate degrees in 37 major fields of study, 30 minors and nine pre-professional programs.

Cabin of my Dreams

By Deronia Mink
There is a cabin of my dreams. To which I often go. Sometimes amid the autumn leaves or nestled in the snow. Because one cannot see it. Doesn't mean it isn't there. It is my secret refuge from a world so full of care. There is a cabin of my dreams. Rustic, quaint and small and, yet, I feel when I am there, I surely have it all. It has two ample windows. Through which the sunlight streams. And when dusk falls, the honey-suckle drifts into my dreams. A place where nature reigns supreme and song-birds fill the air with melodies so beautiful. And, no distractions there. And we are the ones who dwell within. My little Lyndsey, Pop and me.
