

Teens from the First Church of Christ in Burlington volunteered at Christ's Outreach.

The Teen Mission group volunteered a weekend of their time at Christ's Outreach.

Mission team at Christ's Outreach

During the first weekend in April, a group of teens from the First Church of Christ, Burlington, Ky., completed a volunteer mission work group experience at our local camp for the blind and handicapped. The Teen Mission group consisted of 26 people -- six adults and 20 youth. It rained all weekend while they were here -- but that didn't hamper the work they did. During the "dry spells," the First Church of Christ group cleared ground for two fields, planted flowers and filled in holes.

For most of the group, this was their first mission work camp experience. They were able to grow closer together and closer to God. Christ's Outreach for the Blind is located on 900 acres in the Pine Hill section of Rockcastle County. The camp is currently under construction. Michael Gates, executive director, anticipates the opening date to be Spring 2004. When opened, the camp will provide services to 600 participants each year. Services will include: horseback riding, hippotherapy, fishing and boating, mountain hiking, gardening, rock climbing, aquatic, indoor archery and bow hunting. The camp is in dire need of 1,900 sq. ft. of nonporous tile to be used in the commercial kitchen, cafeteria and two public restrooms. If you are interested in making a donation to help purchase this need, or if you have any questions about our other needs, please contact Mike Gates at 256-8888. Also, please visit our website at www.blind19.com.
