Public Hearing

The City of Livingston will be holding a Public Hearing on Friday, June 13, 2003 at 2 p.m. concerning mandatory garbage pick-up. All citizens are welcome to attend.

Cecil King won the best-decorated tractor part of the parade Saturday. Other winners were Kay Shelton and Jerry Smith (with the help of Floyd Gabbard) for best decorated store (Dart-Delite); Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Graves, Home Decoration Winner; Ruby Epperson, best decorated car; Bill Epperson, best decorated horse; P.D. Roller, best decorated truck and Orville Shephard, best motorcycle.

Participants in the Survivor Games at this year's Headwaters of the Dix River Fish Fry Festival were, from bottom, left: Kayla Bryant, Allison Anderkin, Heather Adams; Mikey Denny and Benny Northern; Jessie Hayes and Michael Hayes; Jessica Riddle and Elijah Lounford; Graham Fay and Bryanna Russell and, at top, Casey Scoggins and Jessie Asher.

Scenes from the Headwaters of the Dix River Festival Saturday, June 7

Red Team members pulled with all their might during the Survivor Contest held during the Fish Fry Festival at Brodhead Saturday. The team evidently pulled hard enough as they won that portion of the contest by downing the gold team. Pulling hard were, front to rear: Benny Northern, Heather Adams, Allison Anderkin and Mikey Denny. Cheerleading for that particular event was Kayla Bryant, left. At right is Mike Hayes, who helped with the Survivor contests.

The Blue Team tried hard but were taken down by the Gold Team in the Tug of War at Saturday's Survivor Contest, part of the Fish Fry Festival. However, the Blue Team were the eventual first place winners of the event. Giving it their best in the event were, front to back: Casey Scoggins, Jessie Hayes, Jessie Asher and Michael Hayes.

A big thank you to Jamie Bryant and Mary Ann Childress for their help with photos of the festival.
