

Community Spirit in Action

What a difference a day makes! That is with the help of community minded citizens joining forces to make things happen.

The Rockesstle Kiwanis Club and a group a local Master Gardeners joined hands tast week to give a much. The Rockesstle Kiwanis Club and a group a local Master Gardener in Mr. Vernon. Over-grown weeds were pulled and to

Thanks to Hill Top Market for showing community spirit in supplying the mulch. Thanks to Rockcards (kumaic Community Service committee for purchasing the plants and for helping with the project. Thanks to the new Master Condeners and their husbands for giving up their day to dig in the dirt and to make a difference and recommunity.

Ed Congleton of Orlando made the project easier with the use of his tiller.

Barbara Congleton, of Orlando, worked non-stop throughout the atternoon on the Sentor Citizens Day Care project. Barbara and her husband Ed have been living in our community for about six years and are very willing to help out where ever they are needed.

Ann Hampton, of Renfro Valley, took time out of her day to led a hand in planting the roses. Ann has a lovely garden of her own and will be on the Garden Tour this June.

Cathy McCauley and Vicki Cox collaborated on the choosing and the lacing of the plants at the center. They are both avid gardeners and are laways ready to lend a hand in the community. Kathy is working very lard with the garden tour to be held in June. You will not want to miss his special occasion.

News and Advertising Deadline is noon Tuesday

Kiwanis Clob member Troy Hansel is shown planting chodedendrons by the side of the building in a new bed. Troy also brought along his "trusty" weed cater and trimmed the area. Troy is not new to community service in our town. He has spent many hours cleaning at the lake and also at spout springs. We need more men like Troy who is willing to take time out of his busy day to make a difference for others.

Betty Lindblom, of Renfro-Valley, dressed for, the occasion and came with her ever present smile to belt with the project. Betty and Hans' landscape will also be on the Garden Four this June: You will enjoy visit ing with Betty and Hans and seeing their gardening talents.
