Cards of Thanks

Thank You
The family of Lela Saylor and Barbara Scott would like to thank everyone who sent flowers, cards, food and visited us or thought of us during this difficult time. Special thanks to Bro. Eddie Nation for his beautiful message and Dowell & Martin for their professional, yet personal, service.

Thank You
The family of Lucy Bocher would like to express our gratitude for the kindness shown to us during the loss of our beloved wife and sister. Thank you for the flowers, food, calls, visits and prayers and for helping in any way. A special thanks to the casketbearers, Dowell & Martin Funeral Home and Bro. David Sargent for the beautiful service.

In Memory
On June 11th our precious Peggy went away. All our hearts grieved for we felt it was not her time to leave. The pain we felt that day will not soon fade away. A mother, a daughter, a wife and friend. Comfort, happiness, laughter and love are the handprints she left in our hearts. And we thank her for that and all the joyful memories she share.

Library News

We had a wonderful day last Tuesday, June 17th at Story-Hour. Several of the children had their picture made with a big bookworm. Ms. Traci Parsons was on-hand to help read books to the children and assist with the activities. The Intermediate craft session is going very well. The puppet theatre has been painted and the children are scripting a play and using finger puppets. They will continue to decorate the different community buildings and prepare for their presentation.

The scrapbooking class also went very well with Hazel Jackson. There were several in attendance. The last day of the scrapbooking class is Monday, June 30 at 1 p.m. We hope to have some pictures in next week's Signal.

The Story Book Chantauqua presentations went extremely well. Travis Burton gave of his time to come out and be a part of the presentation, even though he has already graduated from RCHS. Travis presented "Henry David Thoreau." We appreciate you, Travis, Allison Carter did a wonderful job portraying "Betty Ross." Jessica Denny portrayed "Pocahontas." Our hat is off to you, Jessica, Harold Burdette came out with a about, presenting "Johnny Appleseed," and Traci Parsons did her usual great job of presenting.

"Sally Ann Thunder Ann Whirlwind Crockett." These fine young people are to be commended for granting their time to their local library. We appreciate you all for the fine performances! Between the performances last Thursday, door prizes were won by Tiffany Davidson, Brandon Nichols, Taxherra Davidale, Nora Nichols and Harley Davidson. At the end of the program, the drawing took place for the bonnet on display at the library this past month, made by Charlene Gentry. Eddie Nichols won the bonnet and we all teased him because the ladies really wanted to win. Eddie said he had a nice doll at home on which the bonnet would fit displayed. Congratulations for winning!

We are winding down with Summer Reading. Don't forget to number the books you have read in your log and bring it to the library to collect your coupons. The logs must be turned in to a librarian by Saturday, July 5th! It won't be long before July 6th will be upon us and Ronald McDonald will be here for the closing program. Today (June 26th) at 4 p.m. at the library, the Live Animal Show will be taking place, so come on out, on out and enjoy it with the children. Make the connection, connect @ your library!

"It is Written"

In Revelation 7:10 we read, "And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb." The word loud comes from the Greek word, "megala" where we get the word "Mega". It means big, exceeding, great, high, large, loud, might, according to Mr. Strong's concordance. This what we see, is that this great multitude is crying out with a mega voice, "Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb." Who are those that are giving praise to God? Revelation 7:9 "After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands." It is the redeemed, the saints, Christians from all over the world who cry out with this "mega" voice unto the Lord. They cry out in praise and admiration to God, because of gratitude, thankfulness, humility, and their love for God. They are not ashamed to give praise to God, for their faith and conviction moves them to cry out with this "mega" voice! They realize that as they are standing before the throne of God Almighty and before the Lamb, they can't help but stand in awe of them. Do you ever feel like praising God with a mega voice? Yes, when one thinks about all the goodness, mercy, love, and grandeur of our God and his Son, Jesus, you just can't help but cry out with a mega voice!
