Broadhead News

On Tuesday morning at 10:15 our little town was shocked by one of the saddest messages that could have been born to our midst. It was that Manly Albright, the eldest son of Mrs. Mary Albright, of this town, had suddenly met his death by an accident while out at his work traveling. I am sure I speak the sentiment of all when I say there was not a young man in our town that was better liked by all, that Manly. He was noble, ambitious and attentive both to his work, mother and home. He was well known in this and adjoining counties and all who knew him loved him for his polite genial disposition and cordiality which he possessed and manifested all day. Words would serve as poor means to express the grief that his many heart broken friends have to bear. But to his mother, brother and relatives especially do we extend our heart felt sympathy in their hour of bereavement. A host of sorrowing friends accompanied his remains to the McKinney cemetery where they were laid to rest. - The meeting conducted at the Baptist church by Bro. Barnes, of Danville, closed Friday last with 60 additions to the church. It was certainly a power for good and it would be gladly welcome. Bro. Barnes to our town again. - Mr. and Mrs. Salin, of Mt. Vernon, were the guests of J. W. Hutcheson and family first of the week. - Henry Anderson who has held a position with the L. & N. for some time is home again. - Frank Brooks and daughter, Mrs. Hunt who has resided on Silver Street for some eight months will occupy the property belonging to and recently vacated by Dr. Benton. He expects to devote his time to raising chickens principally. - C. H. Frith is in Lancaster, Berne and Richmond this week in the interest of the Consolidated Gas and Electric Company. - Mr. and Mrs. Grant Sigman and little daughter, Belle, are the guests of John Sigman and granddaughter this week. - Mrs. Wilmet of this place Mrs. Sallie Roberts, of Gum Sulphur, and Mrs. Granville Leece, of Copper Creek, are visiting Mrs. G. W. Brooks in Williamsburg. - Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hutcheson, of Burnside, Ky., are visiting here as the guests of Dr. Gravelly and family. - M. B. Bowling was in London Sunday. - J. M. Cress, of Preacherville, is purchasing a good number of hogs in this vicinity. - The play to have been given at the opera house here Wednesday night March 17th will be produced at a later date. This troop was from Mt. Vernon and we understand is well worth going to see.

My name is Haley Suzanne Graves. I turned one on June 19th. I am the daughter of Granville and Melissa Graves. We celebrated my birthday with a Blues "Clubs" party. We would like to thank all of my friends and family for attending and for all the great gifts. We would like to give special thanks to Alva Cash for the wonderful "Blues Clubs" cake.
