Mornt Mann Signal

Since 1887

Livingston Homecoming this week end this week end

This year's Livingston Homecoming will honor the churches in the county and particularly the oldest church. Church ministers pill serve a Grand Marshal's for the parade.
The week end begins with a gopel singing Fridgy night, beginning at 70 siloutely, events kick off with panciels breakfast, followed by the panciels the ministers and the oldest church in the county followed by a puppet show put on by Northisg to a puppet show
the form of the county
to a puppet show
the following the county
to a puppet show
the following the put
to a puppet show
the following the put
to a puppet show
the following the following
the following
the following
the following
the following
the following
the following
the following
the following
the following
the following
the following
the following
the following
the following
the following
the following
the following
the following
the following
the following
the following
the following
the following
the following

Local man charged for sell of Xanax

A Mt. Vernon man was arrested last Wednesday and charged with four counts involving illegal drugs. Gerald D. "Gene" Mink, 45, of Sand Springs was arrested by Barry Adams, a member of the federal government's Drug Task and a Rockeastle County Deputy Sheriff.

Troy Hansel, of Heritage Crafts in Mt. Vernon, is shown at left working on a mural being painted on the side of Young's Pharmacy. The mural will depict the role our community played as part of the Wilderness Trail. Hansel has spent Trail. Hansel has spent hours scraping and filling to prepare the wall for the painting and doing the actual painting itself. This Thursday and Friday, members of the RCHS art class will be joining Troy to help complete the painting. Rockcastle Kiwanis Club is donating the paint and is donating the paint and supplies to the project and the space was graciously donated by Joe Young and Dr. G.W. Griffith.

Madison man found dead at Burnt Ridge

After thirteen hours, rescue vol-unteers found a Madison County man dead at Burnt Ridge on Tuesday af-dead at Birmi Ridge on Tuesday, at-terison.

Charles Swith, 54, of Ricfimod was found dead around 1 pm after, about. 50 volunteers searched the cougheraria in the Burnt Ridge are, of Rockcastle County which is in the northern part of the county.

According, to Mt. Vernon firefighter Bryran Hansel, family members nottled authorities around midnight on Monday, after Smith did not return to the designated site, where he was supposed to be piaked up.

Hansel said that Smith was hunt often and he would normally spend a twelve hour period doing so. Hansel said Smith was dropped off at 8 a.m. and he was to be picked up at 8 p.m.

According to family members Smith had had five heart attacks in his lifetime.
Rockeastle County Coroner Bill Dowell said because of the heat on Monday and the fact that Smith was apparently trying to walk up a steep hillside, he probably died from another heart attack, but Dowell still ordered an authory in the case.

other heart attack, but Dowell still or-dered an autopsy in the case.
Smith was found by a search dog from the K-9 unit in Georgetown.
Ginseng roots are used in the pharmaceutical field.

Rockets open 2003 campaign with win

Ry: Chad Hensley
The much anticipated beginning to the 2003 Kockasatle County Rockess football season came together without a hitch Saunday as the 3A A precason 112 Lakker County Hawks 21-8 in the Cumberland Falls Egiskin Classic at Corbin High School despite looking very shaky beginning the game.
Led on offense by junior running back from an ankle injury that sidelined him for most of the 2002 season and all of spring practice.
The Rockets controlled the football and the clock for most of the game.

game.
Rockcastle County out gained LaRue County 420 to -27 yards on the ground. The Rockets also won the first down battle as they had 19.

with 17 of those coming by way of the rush, to the Hawks five as the re-with 17 of those coming by way of the rush, to the Hawks five as the re-sult of their passing game. The Rocket defense, which is led by All-State defensive and offensive lineman Jason Leger, assing other-lineman Jason triped to the con-traction of the state of of the state game. The department of the de

Support group for Home School students, parents formed

By: Richard Anderkin
Home School is not for everyone but it is for some students, according to a group of Rockcastle County parents and grandparents.
The group, who has dedicated themselves to educating their own children recently-formed a home

By: Richard Anderkin
Home School is not for everyone it is for some students, according a group of Rockcastle Cousty parsand grandpare for the control of the control of day with a prayer and end it with a prayer." and Paula Day, who home schools both of her children. The group referred to four verses in the Bible in Douteronomy chapter six. The verses, six through niter. The words and tell the children of the children in the bible of the children of the children of the children with the children of the children with t night, or getting up in the morning. Write down copies tie them to your wrists and forbeads to hely you obey them. Write these laws or the door or farmes of your homes and on your town gates."

None of those in attendance on Friday had anything bad to say about the Rockcastle County School ovstem and at least one parent involved in the group home schools a child and has another who attends one of the local public schools.

los another wind such to the characteristic schools.

Mrs. Lisa Ross, who home schooled all three of her now grown children said that all three made high enough on the ACT test to get into college, which was one of her concress, while teaching them herself.

"You have to get help sometimes with subjects that you may not have the most knowledge of and you have to be disciplined enough to make sure your children do their work and put to the control of th in the required time; Mrs. Ross said.

In Kentucky, home schooled students are required to register with the local school system in the county where they live and they are required to attend school 175 days a year for six hours: each day.
Currently there are 112 students who are home schooled in Rockeastle County.

County.

That number has increased over the last five years

"Home school students are not required to go along with the same school calendar that public schools do," said Rode Brown who is Direct or 5 Student Sery jues for the Rockeastic County School System. "The only frequirement of parameter of the service of the ser

Cont. to A-9

Vet rep here Tues., Sept. 2

You may be entitled to receive benefits from the Federal Adminis-tration that may include compensa-tion for disease or injury received while in service, pension for wartime veterans, survivor benefits or assisnce with medical expenses.

Rockcastle County receives ov two million dollars per year from veteran benefits. The Kentucky De-partment of Veterans Affairs provides counseling and assistance to veterans and dependents in filing claims for of the members of the Rockcastle County High School football (eam are shown above with the plonship trophy, after they defeated Larue County 21-8 Saturday night. The Rockets will host Sou el on Friday night in their season opener.