

Scenes from Livingston Homecoming

Sharon Ponder, widow of Eric Ponder, and her son, Douglas Dell, accepted an Appreciation Plaque for the donations of electrical materials she made to the fire department for their building.

Members of the Livingston Homecoming Committee who work tirelessly for several months each year to put on the annual event are, from left: Kathy Ponder, Rita Mize, Billy Wayne Bryant, Angie Stallworth, Maude Mullins, Paul Ponder, Tevis Bryant, Sam Stallworth, Cleo Bryant, Dell Ponder and Kathy Carpenter. Not present were: Aletha Bryant, Margaret Burdine and Gladys Carpenter.

Pleasant Run Baptist Church at Larner was recognized as being the oldest church in the county, established in 1820. Their float's theme was "In the Garden."

Contestants in the Pretty Baby Contest (girls division) were: Makayla Saylor 16 mos., Kendra Leeann Kelly 5, Rachel Brook Lear, 1 month, Lakisha Newcomb, 1, Abby Gale 5 weeks old, Bailey Sue Allen, 18 months, Courtney Taylor Payne 2 mos., Daley Clemmons, 4 wks. old and Katelyn Smith, 2. Winners were Courtney Taylor Payne, 1st and Bailey Sue Allen, 2nd.

Contestants in the Pretty Baby Contest (boys division) were: Paul Riley Young, 13 mos., Cherokee Mullins, 3, Brandon Bullock 3, Hunter Spivey 13 months, Shelby Newcomb 4, Chance Abrams 8 mos. and Hunter Medley, 16 mos. Cherokee Mullins was the runner-up and Chance Abrams won first place.

