

Local Band Chosen As One of Top in State

Rockcastle County's own 7th Time Down, made up of members Mike Howard, Jody Kirby and James Wheat, has been selected as one of the top 12 finalists by the Lexington Herald Leader for its Weekender Sound Check Music Festival. The local Christian rock group was chosen from a long list of entries, and their music is included on more than 2,500 free compilation c.d.'s being distributed at venues all over Kentucky. Listeners and readers can vote for their favorite band of the twelve either online or with a mail-in ballot available in the Lexington Herald Leader. The Weekender Soundcheck Music Festival at the Red Mile on October 11th, Lexington radio station Z-Rock 103, along with the Red Mile and kentucky.com, are sponsoring the event. You can listen to 7th Time Down's song and the other band's mp3 at www.kentucky.com under the SoundCheck logo. Vote online or mail the ballot in the Herald Leader. Paper ballots must be received by 5 p.m. Friday, September 19th. Online voting ends at noon Monday, Sept. 22. Vote once, either online or in paper. Multiple votes won't count. You can mail the sn-paper ballot to: Steve Medley, Weekender Soundcheck Festival, Herald Leader, 100 Midland Ave., Lexington, KY 40508-1999.

Bill Bruner

Three professionals join Rockcastle Hospital staff

Rockcastle Hospital and Respiratory Care Center, Inc. is pleased to announce the addition of three professional staff members. Bill Bruner, L.P.C.C., is a licensed professional clinical counselor and holds a master's degree in counseling. Bruner most recently worked with the Christian Application Project's Family Life Counseling and resides in London. In addition to counseling inpatients, Bruner is available to assist people on an outpatient basis with general mental health, such as adjustment issues, bereavement, and mental health assessments. Janica Richards, OTR/L, is a licensed occupational therapist. She is a graduate of Rockcastle County and a graduate of Eastern Kentucky University. Richards provides therapy for outpatients, Home Health, and the Rockcastle Health and Rehabilitation Center. She is married to Mark Richards.

Sarah Lane, M.P., joined the hospital's Speech-Language Pathology Department as a therapist. She is originally from Morehead, and graduated from the University of Kentucky this year. Lane chose to work at Rockcastle Hospital after having a positive student rotation at the facility as part of her curriculum. Rockcastle Hospital and Respiratory Care Center, Inc. offers training and educational benefits as well as competitive pay. It is an equal opportunity employer. Jason and Sara Cogger, of Mt. Vernon, wish to announce the birth of their third child, Travis Reese Cogger. Reece was born July 16, 2003 at the Patte A. Clay Hospital in Richmond. He weighed 9 lbs. 1 oz. and was 20 1/2 inches long. Maternal grandparents are James and Perline Anderkin and paternal grandparents are Larry and Ruth Cogger, all of Mt. Vernon. Paternal grandmother is Victoria Reese of Roundstone. Reece was welcomed home by his big sisters, Abigail Victoria, 6, and Caroline Elizabeth, 5.

Oh wow! Look who turned 11 on September 9. She was a blessing then and she still is one to me. I just thank God for giving her to me.

Happy Birthday Ashlee!
Love: Mom & Curtis

Happy second birthday Farrah Pearl, daughter of Brandi and Cary Collins. Although you are miles and miles away, I say a prayer for you each day that soon you'll be coming home to stay where you can take your turn at play and never have to go away. We'll say goodbye to Singapore the day that you walk thru our door. We miss you and love you very much!
