In Loving and Precious Memories of Benny L. Phillips 9/15/40 - 9/8/2001

The family wishes to thank everyone for their sympathy and loving kindness each gave in great measure during this, our time of unspeakable sorrow. We thank those who came to pray and honor Benny's life. He would have appreciated this so very much.

We would like to extend our thanks to Ann's friends in Daytona Beach, FL who consistently took care of her 24/7 for three weeks because she became so weak and too ill to make her flight to her brother's funeral. We also would like to thank her friends for, at her request that in lieu of flowers, money be donated to a homeless shelter and to a domestic abuse center for women and children in which she is active.

Benny, the thank you cards that were sent back to Ann, bearing the amounts in honor of you would have made you so proud and happy. A very special thanks to Mr. Priest and to Cris. We, her family, can't thank you enough for your donations, the wonderful care and the love you gave for Ann during this tragedy.

A special thanks to Pastor Medley and wife; Juanita, for their compassion, words of comfort and their beautiful songs. The flowers that many of you took the time and effort to lovingly send. We are ever so grateful to you.

A loving thank to Joshua Phillips, who, at the request of his Aunt Ann, read Benny's favorite poem which he always carried in his wallet, "My Brother's Keeper." At Aunt Ann's request, he has been the lead speaker for all of our family members' funerals. We love you, Josh.

We thank each of the pallbearers who carried our loved one so tenderly and lovingly. A special thanks to the honorary pallbearers, Uncle Roy Ponder and Fritz Phillips. To his beloved nephew Robert Earl Rose and to Brad Phillips who was his great confidant in life, both carried our Benny.

To Mr. McNew who, with great precision, etched the exact placement of each word that Ann had said in the book for it describes our Benny so well.

To each and everyone you, we shall forever be grateful. We would like to apologize for the length of time it has taken us to let you know we have not forgotten because, in a short period of time, four family members have passed away.

As Ann put it so well, my precious one, you possessed the most beautiful bright blue eyes, your oh, so beautiful and handsome smiling face, your deep laughter and that unique deep voice when you spoke... how we miss you! For, in death, there is no closure. On each of your families' face, the tears still linger... it is for us, just yesterday that you were here with us.

After having three girls, you were my first beautiful son, my little boy. How tender my memories... and oh how fascinated I was by you, my precious one!! Rest peacefully in God's

All To Myself

All to myself I find the way Back to each golden yesterday, Faring in fancy untoldland. Clinging your ready loving hand. The picture seems half true, half dream. And I keep its color and its gleam. All to myself.

All to myself I hold and know All of the days of long ago, Wonderful days when you and I Owled all the sunshine in the sky. The days come back as the old days will; All I keep their tinge and their thrill. All to myself.

All to myself! My dad, you do Coopt all the memories softly, too? Summer and autumn, winter, spring. The hopes we cherish and everything? They course your veins as a draft drive, And I keep them wholly, safely mine. All to myself.

All to myself I think of you, Think of the things we used to do, Think of the things we used to say, Think of each happy, bygone day. Sometimes I sigh and sometimes I smile. But I keep each golden, golden while. All to myself.

The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning that God was going to call you home. In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone. For a part of us went with you, the day God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide. Our sister chain is broken, and nothing will be the same. But as God calls us one by one, Our chain will link again.

Love, we love, and we miss you
