Library News

For the past few weeks we have had excellent attendance for the Story hour here at the Rockcastle County Public Library. A very popular children's author had a birthday Tuesday September 16th. H.A. Rey author of the book Curious George. A very special visitor was on hand to see the children, and participate in some of the Story-hour activities. Christy Harper the Book fair chair at Broadhead Elementary School, came dressed in character as Curious George. We want to thank Christy for taking time out of her day to make twenty little children extremely happy. It is such a wonderful feeling to see the children's eyes light up when they see a storybook character come to life! We also want to thank all of the parents and caregivers for your continued support of the program, and also for your help! Lastly we want to thank Ms. Brenda Saylor from the County Extension Office for coming this past Tuesday the 23rd and doing a nutritional program with the parents and children during the Story hour. We appreciate you Ms. Brenda.

Several books have been donated to the library recently and we want to thank the patrons for bringing these books to us. We appreciate donated books that are in good condition!

Teen Read Week begins the 19th of October, special plans are on tap for that week here at the library. Updates will be put in the Signal as plans are made.

We encourage you to visit your library and sign up for a card if you do not already have one. Your card gives you access to computer use, books, magazines, newspapers, historical research, audio, video and much more. Open yourself up to a world of adventure, make the connection, connect to your library!
