"Alfalfa"
(Cont. from A3)

Kentucky should be done on a rotational basis to maintain thick productive stands. Stocking rates should be high enough to remove the herbage in 7-10 days. Allow enough time between grazing (4-5 weeks) for alfalfa to reach the bud-to early-flower stage. Take precautions to prevent bloat in grazing animals. Including a cool-season grass with alfalfa will help to reduce the chances of bloat. Other recommendations for grazing alfalfa include using a blood preventive and not turning hungry animals out onto alfalfa, especially lush alfalfa that is wet with rain or dew.

"Fall Fashion"

were introduced during late spring and summer have caught on big in a number of areas. For those individuals who wouldn't dare wear a 14-inch skirt, a couple of inches above the knee is the new standard.

Others silhouettes to watch this season include: empire waistline, bell sleeves, princess seaming, lace-up slits, bust-darted shifts, slim skirts, knicker-style pants, bomber jackets, short-cropped jackets, cuffs, pull-over jackets/tops, tunics, wrapped coat dress, peplum, body-conscious draping, A-line, jumpers, 1/2 length jackets, and dip, point or drape hemlines.

that every Kentucky student can learn to read, 2nd read well, by the end of the third grade.

I also want to say how vital teachers are to our lives. Personally, teachers throughout my education in the Rockcastle School system inspired me to learn and try my best at everything I do. The lessons and inspiration they have provided is priceless, and as I continue my education at Western Kentucky University, it is because of the many teachers that touched my life that I am working hard to succeed. I think they deserve the best. This is another reason I plan to place my vote for Ernie Fletcher. He WILL provide raises for teachers.

Meanwhile, Mr. Ben Chandler says he will do the same. What teachers do is not even legal! Slot machines! This is how Mr. Chandler says he will increase teacher's salaries-through something not even permitted in the state of Kentucky!

Teachers are much too important to gamble on.

Fellow citizens, we must put our political parties aside and think of who will best serve our Commonwealth. I urge you to ensure a bright future for Kentucky. To do this, please vote for Ernie Fletcher on November 4th for our next Governor.

Thank you,
Ashley Cottrell
