Words of Hope
My family recently went to a fiftieth wedding anniversary party. A large crowd of friends and family from all over gathered to celebrate the occasion. During the celebration, the daughter of the "bride and groom" read a tribute to her parents. In it she included a list of all those loved ones who are no longer with us. It was a bittersweet moment and it made me realize the one constant in all of our lives - Jesus. He said, "And surely I am with you always..." (Matthew 28:20). Now that's a vow we can trust!
